Huron supervisor charges conflict

By HENRY CANTIN

Wayne County Prosecutor William L. Cahalan will be requested to investigate "conflict of interest" charges made by Huron Township Supervisor George W. Moore against a member of the Huron Township Board of Trustees.

Accused by Moore is Harvey Carey of 32624 King Rd., New Boston, an eight-year veteran of the township board who also is a private sewer and water tap contractor in the township.

The charges were aired Monday afternoon by Moore when he charged "lack of cooperation and harrassment" existed on the part of Carey, a Democrat, and some other township board members.

Moore, a Democrat, serving his first term as township supervisor, claimed several "major" actions by his opponents on the township board have prevented his administration from successfully completing some programs he has initiated for the benefit of township residents and township development.

He charged that Carey sits on the township board with a voice in the hiring of the city engineer, water commissioner and employes in the sewer and water department of the township.

He tells the engineer where to place sewer and water lines and has a voice in setting up the rules and regulations of the sewer and water department. He also votes on the maintenance of the township's sewer and water contract." Moore said.

Moore charged Carey comes to the township office during the day and allegedly procures permits to sewer and water taps from a female employe in the sewer and water department that Carey has hired.

Carey also has been accused by Moore of allegedly amending the rules and regulations of the department to "his benefit" and having the maintenance department do some of his repairs.

Moore charged that at the May 10 township board meeting, the board refused to refund the sum of $900 he had spent toward an airport pollution study as ordered by the township electors at their recent annual meeting and that the board has refused to proceed with the airport study as requested by the electors. Moore said the May 10 meeting was the first he had missed since being supervisor.

He also reported the board took away the supervisor's authority on the enforcement of the township zoning ordinance. Moore said the board has allowed Ordinance Officer John Ovanic to issue violation tickets without

A SPECIAL EXHIBIT — The Romulus Public Library has a special exhibit entitled 'Red, White, Black, Brown and Yellow: Minorites in America" on display until Friday. Huron Township joins Belleville stadium suit

By HENRY CANTIN

Huron Township has joined its neighbor, the City of Belleville in opposing the proposed construction of Detroit's $126 million riverfront domed stadium.

A resolution to support the position of Belleville and Mayor Royce E. Smith in a court battle against the proposed stadium was adopted by the Huron Township Board of Trustees on May 10.

A lawsuit seeking to stop development of the riverfront stadium is set for hearing May 22 in Wayne County Circuit Court. If the court suit is not resolved by June 19, [illegible] the $126 million in [illegible] bonds could be [illegible].

The Wayne Co[illegible] Authority sold [illegible] to Halsey, Stua[illegible], a Chicago bond [illegible] firm, the day after the lawsuit was filed. The delivery of the bonds has been withheld pending settlement of the suit.

Huron Township Supervisor George W. Moore stated, "The county just doesn't seem concerned about the taxpayers. The stadium bond could affect the future bonding in the entire county. Someone will have to pay to make the payments and if enough ballpark tickets aren't sold to cover it, where else can the county go but to the taxpayers?"

"What will happen if Huron Township wants to sell bonds for sewers and our county already is involved in $126 million worth of stadium bonds?" Moore asked.

"The township board supports the legal position of Mayor Smith in his battle against the county of Wayne, which is attempting to divert bonding power and taxes of the county to develop a downtown sports stadium in lieu of pursuing the needs for services of health, welfare and safety for the citizens of Wayne County."

The resolution states "Huron Township is attempting to provide ever-increasing public services for the citizens of h Huron as they move from the rural to an urban status, and the County of Wayne continuously is decreasing their services to the township for police protection, road maintenance, improvements and extension of roads and improvements in the drainage facilities within the township."

Huron administrative officials contend the township citizens have made other sacrifices, such as losing much of the taxing power on lands within the township to the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Park, and on land taken by the state for the extension of I-275.

In addition, the township is suffering a continuing devaluation of much of its properties because of the increasing noise pollution created by jets going in and out of Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus, officials claim.

Moore reported copies of the resolution will be sent to all the communities in Wayne County requesting their officials to draft similar ones.

The court suit was initiated by Mayor Smith and two Grosse Pointe Woods investment counselors, Marc Allen and William Ross Kelley.

The suit contends the sale of bonds to underwrite the statium construction costs amounts to public funding of a private business.

Volunteers needed to continue rec plans

Due to economic reasons, some of the spring recretion programs sponsored and supervised by the Romulus Parks and Recreation Department have been postponed until summer or about June 19, Frank J. Tolish, director, announced Monday.

Tolish, who recently won Romulus City Council's approval of a transfer of $3,400 form the department's operating supplies account to the contractural services account to maintain some of the programs until June 19, said some volunteers have agreed to continue and others are urgently needed.

The spring recreation programs that have been postponed until June 19 are:

Rubbish collection contract questioned

The awarding of a new rubbish collection contract for the City of Romulus has been deferred by Romulus City Council until its meeting scheduled for Tuesday.

The council's action was taken when Councilman James C. Stewart requested more time to study the large difference in the two bids received by the city for the three-year contract.

The proposals were submitted by the American Rubbish Disposal of 5757 N. Lilley Rd., Plymouth, and the present city's rubbish contractor, Canejo Trucking Inc., of 16321 Dodge St., Romulus.

American Disposal Co. submitted a weekly unit price of 38 cents for a three-year contract, 39 cents for a two-year contract and 40 cents for a one-year contract.

The Canejo Trucking Inc. submitted a weekly unit price of 42 cents for a three-year contract, 41 cents for a two-year contract and 40 cents for a one-year contract.

The city currently has 5,378 rubbish collection stops, including residential and some commercial.

For a 100 per cent pick-up, the unit price bid of American for a three-year contract remains the same, at 38 cents per week per pickup.

The total reported collection cost for a three-year contract to the Canejo firm would amount to $419,384 as against a total of $318,808 for American, a difference of more than $100,000.

Stewart, in asking for a delay in awarding the contract, said that he wanted to check personally into the bids' total figures.

Hunting ban supported by Romulus audience

By HENRY CANTIN

A recommendation that hunting with a rifle be prohibited in Romulus has received the approval of a majority of 50 citizens who attended a recent public hearing on the proposed ban.

The public hearing was conducted by the local hunting control committee of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and was held at the Romulus Senior High School Auditorium on May 9.

The recommendation against hunting was made by a committee appointed by the DNR.

The proposal, yet to be officially presented to the Romulus City Council, states: "Hunting with or the discharge of a firearm is prohibited within Romulus except shotgun and fine shot no larger than No. 2 shot may be used during those seasons open to the hunting of wild animals and wild birds. However, target shooting is permitted in this area at ranges approved by the city council."

The majority of the sportsmen in the audience agreed with the recommendation. One sportsman said - "It allows hunters to enjoy the sport during hunting season and gives residents protection from high-powered rifles or other weapons."

Residents at the Birch Run Cooperative Townhouses, who initiated the campaign for gun control also agreed with the recommendation.

Daniel Gavin, chairman of the cooperative, said, "We feel it would ensure adequate protection from the random shooting with high-powered weapons that has endangered our neighborhoods."

Several appearances by a citizens group led by Daniel Cleary of Birch Run and others prompted the City Council to request the DNR to conduct a study.

Councilman James C. Stewart led the opposition to the recommendation. He announced the recommendation was nothing more than a gun control ordinance that penalizes hunters.

Louis Gray, chairman of the study committee and law enforcement executive of the DNR disagreed with Stewart's position.

Airport's effect on Romulus rated top issue

The effect of Detroit-Metropolitan Airport on the City of Romulus is the No. 1 issue requiring city attention, according to the Romulus Searchlight.

A nonprofit and nonpartisan volunteer organization, the Searchlight made its opinion known Thursday when members of the civic group and local business and industry were polled at a dinner meeting.

Listed behind the airport situation, according to the Searchlight, was the lack of harmony in Romulus government, with the slowdown in industrial development third, the increasing tax burden fourth and the condition of city maintained roads fifth.

All of those at the dinner expressed a concern about the city not living up to its potential. It was decided that an in-depth study should be made to search for ways and means to make Romulus "a better place in which to live, work and play."

The Searchlight, which promoted cityhood for Romulus in one of its first endeavors, was created two years ago. The organization, registered with Wayne County, is dedicated to the rating and promotion of qualified persons for public office in Romulus.

Mickey Reel, president of a Romulus realty company, was elected executive director for a four-year term. He said all suggestions and criticisms would receive individual consideration.

Reel was urged to begin the in-depth study immediately through the use of a survey.

Correspondence should be sent to the Searchlight, P.O. Box 403, Romulus.

Police-community relations group eyed

A police-community relations team was recommended in a quarterly report of the Romulus Community Relations Commission submitted recently to the City Council.

Two months in developing, the plan provides structures for bridging the communications gap between the police and the residents of the community.

The proposed team, to be a subsidiary of the commission, would be made up of a cross section of the community with representation from business, schools, citizens and youth. Special regard will be given to ethnic and racial group representation.

Appointments to the team would be the responsibility of the commission with cooperation from other organizations.

Among the purposes outlined in the report is to increase understanding of problems police encounter in carrying out their duties.

Other aims are to provide citizens with an opportunity to air grievances and needs, to educate the public on the most effective use of police services and to work for increased trust and confidence between youth or other segments of the community and the law enforcement groups.

Efforts to plan and coordinate community participation in crime prevention and to explore new ways to involve the community in prevention programs are outlined.

Methods of implementing the recommendations include a newsletter, public meetings and workshops.

According to commission chairman Mrs. Suzanne Cooke, the commission has held many meetings with authorities in police community relations fields to gather information for the recommended plan.

Mrs. Christine Anderson, commission member, was responsible for arranging for resource people. Lt. James Haile, community relations director for the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, provided assistance.

The teachers who are resigning are Mrs. Rosemary Dooley of 2617 Braeburn, Ann Arbor, a Spanish teacher at Romulus High School, and Mrs. Sherry Petra of 6988 Niagara St., Romulus, a social adjusted studies teacher at Merriman Elementary School.

STUDYING MONKEY BEHAVIOR — Doug Rush, a Michigan State senior from Romulus, feeds a monkey during his study of its behavior. Rush recently returned from a term at the University of Wisconsin, where he was involved in social psychological research involving Rhesus monkeys.

Romulus student enjoys monkey-shines

Doug Rush believes in monkey business.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl K. Rush of 29629 King Road, Romulus, Doug spent winter term studying the behavior of monkeys in the primatology lab at the University of Wisconsin.

Doug, a Michigan State University senior, feels there are many questions that could be answered using monkeys as subjects. Doug explained [illegible] monkeys can be used as a model for human beings, they do not have the complexity or variations found in the human pesonality. He would like to delve into the more complex human problems that are capable of being analyzed today.

Doug was involved in social psychological research using Rhesus monkeys during his stay at the University of Wisconsin. The commonly known Rh factor was named after this pale brown Indian monkey, in which it first was detected.

Doug spent nine weeks on a project where monkeys have been put into a nuclear family set-up (one male, one female and their offspring) for four-year observation. The date from this normative study will be compared with data on monkeys raised in other artificial situations which simulate frequently occuring variatons in rearing situations.

Although he was always interested in primate research, Doug's part[ial] interest was not trig[gered] until he took a basic cours[e] MSU in the anthropology department. At this time his interest in Darwin's theory of evolution and primatology research reached a peak.

Doug is a student at Justin Morrill College, one of three residential colleges at MSU. It offers a four-year undergraduate program featuring innovative and experimental approaches to liberal education.

Doug arranged through Robert L. Raisler, assistant professor of psychology, to do his independent research project at the University of Wisconsin as part of his individualized program. Doug had worked with Dr. Raisler fall term.

The first half of his nine-week stay included observational studies, talking with researchers and doing independent research of his own.

The last half brought about laboratory research and a chance to look into future prospects in the field of clinical psychology, which he someday hopes to enter.

Doug is a 1967 graduate of Huron High School, located in New Boston.

Cocktail lounge plans submitted

Louis A. Toth, former Van Buren Township supervisor, has submitted to the Township Board final plans for his proposed restaurant and cocktail lounge.

Toth is seeking township approval for his application for a Class C liquor license.

The board deferred formal action pending both review of the proposed plans by the township's building inspector and a presentation by Toth of a definite location for the establishment.

Toth reported to the board he has several locations in mind but did not wish to purchase property in case the Michigan Liquor Control Commission denies him a license.

Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer announced he would check with the MLCC for the procedure to be followed in cases where a site has not been definitely designated by the applicant. The supervisor reported he could not see how the board could make a recommendation without a more detailed study, including location.

The MLCC has allotted the township three new Class C liquor licenses based on population increase shown in the 1970 U.S. Census. The board already has approved one of the three licenses.

Our Al is a pro . . !

He's spent the last 25 years driving the big wheel rigs, hauling steel to Michigan's industrial community. He has driven a million accident free miles during that time.

The 57-year-old River Rouge resident was honored by Secretary of State Richard Austin and the Michigan Trucking Association in February when he was named MTA's Driver of the Year.

It was the 24th year in a row we have honored a Michigan big rig driver for safety efforts during their career. Al Guarino is a pro. Just like the other 250,000 truck drivers in Michigan.

But we don't rest on the laurals of Al Guarino. We look to the future and the Al Guarino's of tomorrow. This year we will award 12 scholarships to Lansing Community College to train the drivers we need for Michigan's fourth largest industry.

By the way, Dick Austin thinks so much of our Al, he is having a copy of the above photograph placed in every Secretary of State branch office. Look for it next time you stop in.

We're proud of Al Guarino, and all of Michigan's professional truck drivers — those of today and those of tomorrow. We're working to keep you in goods and services.

Remember . . . If you got it, a truck brought it.

Hannan PTO elects officers

The Parent-Teachers Organization (PTO) of the Hannan Road Elementary School in New Boston has elected new officers for the 1972-73 school year.

Elected president was Patrick Schiller. Others elected were Mrs. Ruth Cady, vice-president; Mrs. Carolyn Prater, secretary; and Mrs. Lois Umin, treasurer.

Schiller served as vice-president last year. He succeeds the late Mrs. Olive O'Bryan. Mrs. Cady was the chairman of the program committee during the 1971-72 school year.

During its first year of organization, the accomplishments of the PTO included projects providing funds of almost $700 for purchase of additional books for the library and indoor-outdoor recreational equipment. The library books and a plaque will be placed as a memorial to the late Mrs. O'Bryan, who helped organize the PTO and served as its first president.

An amendment to the by-laws was proposed at the May 9 meeting of the PTO to create the position of faculty coordinator on the official PTO board. This position will be filled each year by appointment of a faculty member to serve as school representative at the PTO meetings. The proposal will be voted on at the September PTO meeting.

Also at the May meeting, a puppet show was presented by Amy Gajda, April Brown, Lisa Burgess and Monica Pachy.

During an interview with Schiller, he commented "we have organized into a productive group and have made several worthwhile contributions to the school all in the short period of one year. We are now going to concentrate our efforts on expanding the membership. When we get more parents involved, we will be able to make greater achievements. We especially want to see more fathers at our meetings."

Meetings of the PTO are expected to continue to be held on the second Monday of each month starting at 7:30 p.m. with the next scheduled meeting on Sept. 11.

Anyone interested in working on the program or refreshment committees should contact Schiller at 753-9716 prior to Aug. 1.

Romulus tables livestock claim

The payment of a $755 livestock claim for five rare white deer killed on March 18 by a pack of wild dogs has been tabled by the Romulus City Council pending a legal review by City Attorney John E. Young.

The council reported the ordinance relative to the payment of livestock claims does not cover the amount requested by John Majchrzak of 35651 Van Born Rd., Romulus.

Majchrzak told the City Council a pack of wild dogs attacked and killed the white Asian variety deer. He stated four dogs got in the pen in an enclosed area next to his market on Van Born Road and killed the deer.

He said he heard the dogs chasing the deer and had fired two shots at the dogs, but not before they had brought down four of the deer. The fifth deer died later.

He reported the deer were valued at $150 each and efforts to replace them have been unsuccessful so far.

He kept the deer and several other animals in the enclosed backyard area.

LUCKY WINNER — John Matthews (right) of Romulus, was the winner of a new Ford Pinto at the recent Garden City West High Athletic Boosters Festival. Booster president Bob Francis presents the keys. Other sweepstakes winners were Thomas Jaroski of Detroit who won a trip to Europe for two and Margaret Chambers of Dearborn Heights who won a color television set.

NEW ROMULUS NURSERY -Pre-School Service Corp. of Romulus has opened a new Durbin Day Nursery at 27975 Eureka Rd., Romulus. The center, shown above, will begin June 5 and will be open from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. five days a week. Both part-and full-time enrollments will be taken. A grand opening and open house will be held at 10 a.m. on June 2 featuring local dignitaries as well as members of the Durbin organization.

High school poster contest slated with veterans theme

A national poster contest for high school students with the theme "Hire a Veteran," was announced Monday by Donald E. Johnson, administrator of Veterans Affairs.

Savings bonds will be awarded to local and state winners throughout the country. The local and state competitions will eventually produce three national winners who will receive trips to the nation's capitol in October.

Local and state veterans groups and other service organizations will be asked to participate in the contest in their localities, Johnson said.

The three national winners will be Johnson's personal guests at the annual Veterans Day national observance at Arlington National Cemetery on Monday, Oct. 23. Johnson is chairman of the President's Veterans Day National Committee. The national winners as VIPs will be treated to other awards and events while in Washington.

Johnson is enlisting the aid of state governors and commissioners of education.

Information is being mailed to school principals so that the contest can get under way promptly when schools open after the summer vacation. Stadents (in grades 9-12) in public, parochial and private schools are eligible. Poster sizes will be restricted to 17-by-22 inches.

Johnson pointed out the Veterans Administration has been instrumental in bringing thousands of veterans and prospective employers together at job marts throughout the country.

While responsibility for assisting veterans in finding jobs rests with the Department of Labor, the total welfare of the veteran and his family is of prime concern to VA, which is the largest employer of veterans in government. Recent hirings by VA have averaged about 1,000 a month.

Johnson said he hopes during the summer vacation students will give thought to the poster contest, even sketching their ideas in preparation for the return to school and the start of the contest.

Emergency messages available for travelers

Emergency messages for Michigan travelers or those vacationing in wilderness areas generally hard to reach can be relayed through a cooperative system arranged by the State Police and the state's radio broadcasters.

These emergency alerts will be broadcast between the hours of noon and 1 p.m. If there is an emergency at home, the affected person will be told to call the nearest State Police Post for the contents of the message. A special tone signal may precede the emergency broadcast.

The exact time of the broadcasts cannot be simultaneous throughout the state because of the program requirements of each station, but it will be sometime during the noon hour.

The plan embodies a fanout of messages to other stations within the area where it is believed the person may be. Each post will have one or more local stations to call. These stations will relay this information to other stations which, in turn, will further inform additional stations to fully cover the area.

State Police post officers will screen messages to assure they fall within the emergency category. In addition, none will be broadcast or otherwise delivered if regular commercial facilities — telephone or telegram — are available to a person who wants to reach another person.

Initiated several years ago, the system has been recently expanded and updated.

Hunting ban supported

"The proposal doesn't say anything about gun possession, transportation or licensing. It isn't just a gun control measure," Gray said.

"We've learned from experience that if you permit the discharge of firearms, you can't enforce a hunting ban. Violators will say they were target shooting instead of hunting and it's hard to prove otherwise."

Stewart, however, contended the proposal "prohibits people in Romulus from using a rifle and I think that's wrong."

A gun control ordinance recently approved by the City Council is subject to a referendum vote initiated by Stewart. It will be on the August primary ballot.

If the City Council approves the DNR recommendation, it will go back to the DNR for final consideration.

Serving with Gray on the committee were Romulus Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, Lt. Fay Johnson of the Michigan State Police, and Inspector John DeVos of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

Center rental okayed

A resolution approving the rental of the American Progressive Community Center for meetings of the Citizens District Council for Urban Renewal Program Development has been passed by the Romulus City Council.

The officers of the community center, located on Beverly Road east of South Wayne Road, have requested the payment of a minimum $25 fee per month to help defray the center expenses.

The City Council was told the Citizens District Council believes the center is comfortable and large enough to meet its needs.

The expenses requested by the community center will be paid out of urban renewal funds.

Supervisor claims conflict processing complaints through the supervisor and clerk's office.

Moore also claimed his request to the board for a review of charges the township planning commission has been making zoning changes without a public hearing has not been acted upon.

Moore charged the township board had ordered the start of a new twice-a-month rubbish collection program approved by the voters at their recent annual meeting without the taking of bids.

He said he had instructed the township clerk to hold up notices to residents of the new program pending a hearing with the board.

Moore revealed the board called for bids on a sewer project despite a one-year contract between the township and Tri-County Excavating Co. of Westland for the maintenance of sewer and water lines in the township.

Moore also claimed his efforts a year ago to reduce the bond retirement levy were unsuccessful because of "lack of cooperation" by some board members.

The supervisor reported several requests he has made to the township board have been ignored, including one for a legal opinion on the right of the county drain commission to levy an $11,000 to $15,000 assessment on township property owners for drain inspection. Another request ignored, he said, was one for a legal opinion on issuing burning permits in the township as long as state regulations are not violated.

Moore said Monday the only support he has on the township board is from Township Clerk Mary Lou Carey and trustee Donald Radabaugh, both Democrats.

The other board members have been opposing his administration of the supervisor's post for varying reasons, he said.

Other board members are Trustees Roy Raker, a Republican, Raymond Kreyger, a Democrat; and Edward Helwig, township treasurer and a Republican, and Carey.

Kiwanis pancake festival Saturday

A proclamation designating May 20 as Romulus Kiwanis Club Annual Pancake Festival Day in Romulus was issued Monday by Hyle J. Carmichael.

The mayor urged community-wide participation in the pancake festival, one of the many community events sponsored by the local Kiwanians.

The pancake festival will be held from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday at the Romulus Progressive Hall, 11580 Ozga Rd., Romulus.

The Romulus Senior High School Key Club members and pancake festival committee members are conducting a ticket sales drive throughout Romulus this week.

The Romulus Kiwanis Club encourages the younger members of the community to participate and become part of the various activities in the city.

The pancake festival committee reported prizes and awards will be given to the champion ticket salesmen in both the junior and senior divisions at a future Ladies Night program of the Kiwanians.

In addition to sponsoring an annual peanut sale, Romulus Kiwanians hold the pancake festival to provide funds for various service projects, including the dental program for the community's indigent children.

Anti-secrecy bill need is disgrace to officials

Public officials who operate government as a private fiefdom have brought upon themselves the renewed campaign for open meetings.

The House already has passed a companion bill giving the public access to all records not specifically classified by law.

But the big fight will be waged over the second part of the package which requires a one-day notice of all meetings and outlaws executive or work sessions as secret forums for cutting deals.

"It's time the public's business is done in public," said Rep. Edward Suski (D-Flint), sponsor of both bills. "There are a lot of peanut politicans who try to run government for themselves."

The condition is neither as nefarious as Suski says it is, nor is his remedy as disastrous as the tired clinches of the Michigan Municipal League make it out to be.

It is aimed primarily at city councils but covers boards of education, county boards of commissioners, township boards, state-supported university boards, regional bodies, boards, commissions and authorities.

Any meeting at which public business is discussed or transacted would be open to the public and nobody could be expelled short of committing a breach of the peace at the meeting.

It would require public notice annually of the time and place of regular meetings, a one-day notice of special meetings plus an agenda of "every subject or action to be discussed or considered."

And the public would be given a chance to be heard without restrictions such as submitting an advance text or "any other requirement for speaking which is not specifically authorized by this act."

It's strong medicine but bothersome only to those with something to hide.

The Michigan Municipal League sees the rather than whether the taxpayer should know how decisions are reached.

"Most cities have a good relationship with the press," said League Director Robert E. Fryer in a letter opposing the bill mailed to House members.

"To impose such unreasonable restrictions as proposed .. in the name of freedom of the press or the public's right to know ... is like using a shotgun to kill a mosquito.

"If the press in one or two areas is having problems with their school board or city council, the local press with its power over local public opinion certainly should be able to arouse the local citizenry sufficiently to resolve the problem locally."

That observation reflects a lack of understanding of both local politicians and newspapers if Fryer's serious. In some areas local officials consider themselves answerable only to themselves.

In some cases, the reason for secrecy is to prevent their actions from being subject to public opinion.

"The Michigan Municipal League opposes this bill," Fryer writes. "In our view the bill is unreasonable and unwarranted and could severely disrupt the orderly conduct of public business at the local level."

He said a 1968 law is enough in requiring public decisions to be made in the open and that "the local legislative body should have control over its own procedures."

Procedures, of course, are translated into license in the area Suski's bill attacks. Under that power, city councils could hold secret meetings and announce its decisions in public without explanation. There's been too much of this.

Fryer revives the old questions of pre-publicity on land purchases, personnel records, pending litigation and the negotiation of labor contracts.

The last time anybody looked, the people including those who work for newspapers were as concerned with their communities and had as much at stake as the public officials.

It is indeed sad that the government-people relationship has reached that state in which any anti-secrecy bill must be considered necessary.

At the very least it will put the burden of getting along with the public on officials and not on the people getting along with the public officials.

Language develops thoughts

By MRS. MARY ANNE DRYSDALE
Chairman, Belleville High School English Department

Language is the instrument for the development, expression and communication of human thought. We, as teachers of English, must concentrate on developing the students' thought processes for effective expression and communication.

A variety of courses, materials and instructional techniques in literature and the communication arts will be provided so adolescents can gain the knowledge of human motivation required for understanding both themselves and others.

The objectives of the English Department are to help the pupil continue to:

1. Develop the ability to use language effectively in speaking, listening, reading and writing.
2. Cultivate an open-minded attitude toward new ideas.
3. Learn democratic attitudes and practices in group situations.
4. Develop a sense of personal responsibility toward the larger groups of which he is a member.
5. Learn to converse easily and intelligently and to listen in both formal and informal situations accurately and respectfully.
6. Learn to speak effectively before a group.
7. Develop the basic reading skills of speed and comprehension.
8. Learn and appreciate the various forms and devices of literature and emphasize the relevance of literature to the individual.
9. Develop composition skills through a variety of writing activities, and recognize composition as the objective use of the systematic structure of our language.
10. Learn how to study efficiently and effectively.

The English classes are organized by dividing the students into three groups: basic, general and college preparatory. These groups are formed according to test scores and personal preferences of the students.

All students are required to take one required course and they may elect to take one-or more each year. All courses except debate, yearbook and journalism are one-year courses.

The courses range from English Skills, Workshop and Writing, Reading Drama, Modern World Literature, Poetry, Language Skills, Modern Literature, Adventures in Science Fiction, Short Story Reading Skills, Short Novels and Plays Vocational English, Ideas and Ideals, American Literature, Research Techniques, Creative Writing, Technical Writing, Contemporary Novels, Shakespeare.

Other courses are Mass Communication, Business English, Modern Fiction, Advanced Reading Techniques, Contemporary Poetry, Mass Media, Consumer English, Group Dynamics, Technical English, Novels, Interpretation of Lyrics, English Literature, Humanities, Reading Techniques, Journalism, Speech, Group Discussion, Introduction to Theatre, Persuasive Speaking, Reading Lab, Speed Reading, Nobel Prize Authors, Forensics.

Why is Edison Co. now giving lake away?

To the editor:

It is very interesting that all of a sudden our township may have Belleville Lake by a transfer from the Detroit Edison Co. Why?

A few years ago our township requested that Detroit Edison Co. sell us this same lake for several thousand dollars, and they refused our offer. Why?

Is this same lake now such a burden that Detroit Edison would like to unload it on someone? If you care how your tax money is spent then attend the meeting May 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Belleville High School Auditorium and ask:

How many hundred of thousands of tax dollars will we lose which Edison now pays. How will this lost tax money be made up and by whom? What is the cost for insurance, dam(repair and upkeep for Edison Point? How long will Detroit Edison employees be allowed to use Edison Pointe if the township does take over the lake ownership? Is this "gift" a burden which a township cannot afford?

A privately owned lake is the sole responsibility of its owner and is not eligible for state aid. Whether Belleville Lake is publicly or privately owned, it is not going to run away. It will be available for us to enjoy as we have or have not done in the past.

Get the facts and then vote intelligently on May 16 on the lake issue.

State voters know what's happening!

By JOHN E. McCAULEY State Senator 11th District

There is a theme that seems to be popping up more and more in news stories here in Michigan. The theme is that more than a few people think the voter and citizen here in Michigan doesn't know what's going on.

The results of the presidential primary may be interpreted by some as proof of that contention. Anyone who takes such a simplistic view just doesn't understand the political process.

It is my belief the so-called average citizen is a far from an average person, and that's why efforts to classify and predict go crazy. We are all individuals, we are the results of what we have learned and experienced, and it seems to me that we don't need to be told that simply because we don't fit into someone's pattern we have something wrong with us.

There are certain strong trends in society today. Most of us are fed up with high taxes, permissiveness, forced busing, welfare cheats, the war, the high cost of livng, inflation and a host of other problems that seem to inflict themselves upon us. Most of us are bewildered that we could have worked so hard and not accomplished as much as we had hoped.

Just because we don't have easy answers to tough problems doesn't mean that we aren't aware of what is going on. There's a big difference here, and one that should be explored by those whose job is to interpret and record living history.

Those of us who have seen the changes in this country over the years since World War II tend to divide the periods of time into decades. We speak of the 40's, the 50's, the 60's as though each one of those decades fell into neat packages. As a matter of fact, they didn't, but there were some definite trends.

The 70's so far have been deeply disturbing years, but after all, we are only in the early years of this decade.

The most promising thing about the condition we now find ourselves is that more and more people are getting involved in trying to solve the problems we all have. At first this increase in citizen participation results in a certain amount of confusion. More voices are heard, more debate goes on, more people have a say on what should be done. It's easier if there is no debate. It's not as confusing if just a few people get together and decide. It's also not right that a very few should decide the course of action by the majority.

From my point of view, it is this increased demand on the part of the citizen to be heard that has created what has been interpreted by some as the failure of the system. The trouble with the gloom and doom people is that they really aren't looking behind the surface. They interpret dissatisfaction and concern as an indication the majority no longer believes the system works. That does not seem to me to be an honest answer.

The more likely reason for this apparently confused scene is that for the first time, a majority of the people in this country are concerned enough about the way things are going to speak out. More than that, they are taking the time and making the effort to do something about the things that concern them.

If the action that is taken seems disorganized, it's because we have honest differences of opinion as to what we should be doing. We know we have complaints. The next step is getting them resolved.

This growing voice of citizen discontent is being heard here in Lansing, and I would certainly hope it is being heard in Washington. Those who serve in local offices, where they have to face their constituants every day, know the voice of discontent is growing on that level.

I for one do not think this is bad. I think it's an indication that at long last, a majority of the citizens in this country are getting involved in government, are becoming aware of the fact that goverment has a vast and vital impact on the lives of us all.

The voter and citizen doesn't know what's going on? Don't you believe it!

New redistricting plan means 'drastic changes'

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK
State Representative
38th District

Taking over from the stallmated Michigan Legislative Apportionment Commission, the State Supreme Court has adopted a plan to reapportion the legislature. It will mean some drastic changes in many areas and in some cases pit incumbent against incumbent.

The legislature must be reapportioned each 10 years to reflect changes in population shown by the federal census. This is in line with the U. S. Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote decision.

In Michigan it means each member of the House and Senate must represent as close as possible the same number of citizens as each of his colleagues.

The job is supposed to be done by a special legislation apportionment commission composed of equal numbers of members from each of the two major parties. This year, for the second time in as many tries, the commission deadlocked. Therefore, reapportionment plans were submitted to the State Supreme Court, which was to select the one it felt best met the U. S. Supreme Court guildelines.

The court, by a 4-3 decision, chose the so-called Hatcher-Kleiner plan submitted and named for two members of the apportionment commission. This plan will continue for the next 10 years.

There were partisan objections to the plan, but the Supreme Court said it would not review its decision. This would give appellants in the case an open avenue to federal court appeal possibly as far as the U. S. Supreme Court. There are strong indications the plan will be appealed.

The State Supreme Court said in its majority opinion it would be futile to send the problem back to the divided apportionment commission. Noting what it termed many political "shenanigans" this year, the court said, "neither party is coming into our court with clean hands. Both are engaged in partisan maneuvering. Both sides frankly admit they did not pass upon all of the plans submitted to the commission."

The Hatcher-Kleiner plan has a difference of 24 persons between the largest and smallest House districts, with an average deviation from the ideal district of 3.1 persons. The ideal-sized House district would be 80,751 persons.

The plan has a difference of 21 persons between the largest and smallest Senate district, with an average deviation from the ideal-sized senate district of 2.66 persons The ideal Senate district was figured at 233,753 persons.

The plan will be in effect irrespective of whether or not it is challenged. The court said nominating petitions for legislative office may be filed or filing fees paid at any time after the date of the court order and up to the deadline of 4 p.m. June 20.

Because of its loss of population over the last 10 years, the City of Detroit will have fewer seats in the legislature. There will be some Detroit House members who will have to either run against another incumbent, move to another district or else simply retire.

Gains in population will mean additional legislative seats in the suburban areas of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. In northern Michigan, most of the districts will be somewhat larger.

Basically, our own new 38th House District will cover the southwestern corner of Wayne County, with the exception of the City of Belleville. This is a more concentrated area. It presently includes Belleville and nine townships in Monroe County.

SUMPTER TOWNSHIP
ANTI-BLIGHT ORDINANCE

Ordinance No. 16

An Ordinance to prevent, reduce or eliminate blight, blighting factors or causes of blight within Sumpter Township, Wayne County, Michigan; to provide for the enforcement hereof; and to provide penalties for the violation hereof.

By the authority granted to the Township by Act 344 of the Public Acts of 1945, as amended.

THE TOWNSHIP OF SUMPTER ORDAINS:

SECTION 1 - PURPOSE

Consistent with the letter and spirit of Act No. 344 of the Public Acts of 1945, as amended, it is the purpose of the ordinance to prevent, reduce or eliminate blight or potential blight in Sumpter Township by the prevention or elimination of certain environmental causes of blight or blighting factors which exist or which may in the future exist in said Township.

SECTION 2.

CAUSE OF BLIGHT OR BLIGHTING FACTORS

It is hereby determined that the following uses, structures and activities are causes of blight or blighting factors, which, if allowed to exist, will tend to result in blighted and undesirable neighborhoods. On and after the effective date of this ordinance no person, firm or corporation of any kind shall maintain or permit to be maintained any of these causes of blight or blighting factors upon any property in Sumpter Township owned, leased, rented, or occupied by such person, firm or corporation irrespective of how such property may be zoned, unless such uses, structures and activities are incidental to and necessary for the carrying out of any business or occupation lawfully being carried on upon the property in question.

A. The storage upon any property of junk automobiles, except in a completely enclosed building. For the purpose of this ordinance the term "junk automobiles" shall include any motor vehicle which is not licensed for use upon the highways of the State of Michigan for a period in excess of sixty days and shall also include, whether so licensed or not, any motor vehicle which is inoperative for any reason for a period in excess of 60 days.

B. The storage upon any property of building materials unless there is in force a valid building permit issued by the Township for construction upon said property and said materials are intended for use in connection with such construction. Building materials shall include but shall not be limited to lumber, bricks, concrete or cinder blocks, plumbing materials, electrical wiring or equipment, heating ducts or equipment, shingles, mortar, concrete or cement, nails, screws, or any other materials used in constructing any structure.

C. The storage or accumulation of junk, trash, rubbish or refuse of any kind, except domestic refuse stored in such a manner as not to create a nuisance for a period not to exceed thirty days. The term "junk" shall include parts of machinery or motor vehicles, unused stoves or other applicances stored in the open, remnants of wood, metal or any other material or other cast-off material of any kind whether or not the same could be put to any reasonable use.

D. The existence of any structure or part of structure which because of fire, wind or other natural disaster, or physical deterioration is no longer habitable, as a dwelling, nor useful for any other purpose for which it may have been intended.

E. The existence of any vacant dwelling, garage, or other outbuilding unless same are kept securely locked, windows kept glazed, or neatly boarded up and otherwise protected to prevent entrance hereto by vandals.

F. The existence of any partially completed structure unless such structure is in the course of construction in accordance with a valid and subsisting building permit issued by the Township and unless such construction is completed within a reasonable time.

SECTION 3.

ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES

A. This Ordinance shall be enforced by such persons who shall be so designated by the Township Board.

B. The owner, if possible and the occupant of any property upon which any of the causes of blight or blighting factors set forth in Section 2 hereof is found to exist shall be notified in writing to remove or eliminate such causes of blight or blighting factors from such property within ten days after service of the notice upon him. Such notice may be served personally or by registered mail, return receipt requested. Additional time may be granted by the enforcement officer where bonafide efforts to remove or eliminate such causes of blight or blighting factors are in progress.

Mrs. Weiler addressed board requesting extention of employment before maternity leave. She is in good physical condition and her doctor states that she can teach until labor is imminent.

Member Canejo entered meeting at 7:40 p.m.

Board questioned Mrs. Weiler reasons for wishing to continue to teach when she is expecting in May and pointed out possible hazards involved in continuing.

Mrs. Weiler stated that while respecting their opinions she wished to continue as a matter of principle, and inasmuch as she had worked the day before the holiday and reported for work today she also felt that her salary should be continued. Gave several instances where the REA contract has been breached.

The administration pointed out that in all cases of contract breach the burden of proof, which has been considered the responsibility of the female employee, was falsified by omission of fact. Further, in reporting for work today she was in violation since her last day at work was March 30th and a replacement teacher was in her classroom today. She did not report to the principal's office today.

8:00 p.m. Audience Discussion:

Miss Kathy Hulik, Jr. High Teacher and REA representative spoke in Mrs. Weiler's behalf; as did Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Christobie, Mr. Weiler and another member of the audience.

New Boston girl takes class in N.Y.

Miss Darlene Pello, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pello of New Boston, recently returned from New York City, where she was sent by her employer the J.L. Hudson Co., to attend advanced cosmetology classes.

Because of outstanding ability and success on the job, Darlene was selected to continue her training for a unique concept entitled "Canned Ego", which endeavors to discover what patrons desire most and then attempts to make them more attractive and satisfied according to their own personality types.

Darlene first became interested in cosmetology when "just for kicks" she attended a career night program at Huron Township High School.

After being accepted for this program, Darlene was eligible to earn three credits toward graduation, Huron High School paying for 600 of the 1,500 hours required for her to become a licensed cosmetologist.

There she learned of the area vocational program which annually contracts with Dawn Beauty School of Flat Rock to train four seniors from each of five area high schools.

Darlene has been employed by Hudson's since March, 1971 at the Westland Beauty Salon.

Ford donation eases recycling processes

Glass for recycling will be processed easier and faster, thanks to a gift from Ford Motor Co.'s Ypsilanti-Rawsonville Community Relations Committee to the Enact Ecology Center., Inc. in Ann Arbor.

The gift, valued at more than $3,000, is a syntron elevating hopper. It will be used by Enact to pulverize waste glass collected by volunteers and carry it along a conveyer to a central area where it will be packaged and sold for recycling.

John Costello, plant manager of Ford's General Parts Division's Ypsilanti Plant, and chairman of the Community Relations Committee, said: Ypsilanti Plant, and chairman.

"We learned from one of our employes of the Enact Ecology Center's need for a device to expedite processing the glass for recycling and were delighted that Ford was willing to donate a syntron elevating hopper.

"A regular work bee was staged to set up the hopper and adapt it to the center's needs. College students and engineers worked hand in hand to install the equipment, and the Enact Ecology Center has indicated it is highly pleased with the hopper's performance."

The Ypsilanti-Rawsonville Community Relations Committee works with governmental and citizens' groups in the area to solve common problems and achieve common community objectives.

Ford has more than 70 other community relations committees operating in locations across the United States where the company and its subsidiaries have facilities.

At City Council meetings

Carmichael encourages homeowner attendance

Dennis Kidder, association chairman for the Romulus Homeowners Chapter 2, reported recently the group is continuing to show results of many problems being handled.

Due to the efforts of the association, a number of junk cars have been removed from the Meadows Subdivision and with the coming of warmer weather, a major effort will be made to establish lawns and clean up the subdivision.

The guest speaker for the May 3 meeting was Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, who fielded questions on a variety of matters of special interest, such as the new Romulus building code, city fire and police protection and how the departments operate, the workings of city government, the school situation, the airport expansion and the widening of Eureka Road.

Mayor Carmichael encouraged the association members to attend City Council meetings to become better informed on the changes taking place in Romulus.

During the meeting, Rosalie Kusluski of 28485 Greenview Ave., Romulus, was elected to the position of membership chairman. She can be reached at 941-5433.

The membership fee is $1 per person or $2 per family, entitling the member to vote at the monthly meetings and to receive the bi-monthly newsletter, the Community Spirit.

The newsletter is produced through the joint efforts of co-chairman and editor, Jessie Kitchens and Jack Bell, the publisher.

Last week several members of the Junior Homeowners of Romulus assisted in the laying of sod for Mr. and Mrs. Michael Alanskas of 15710 Meadow Ave., Romulus.

The next homeowners meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on June 7 at the Harrison Elementary School.

Romulus Metro chamber needs another Kuckelman

Theodore F. Kuckelman, executive secretary of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, was the needed zest everyone was looking for to help get the board members of the Romulus Chamber of Commerce all "fired up" on their membership drive and community programs.

The Romulus-Metro International Airport Chamber of Commerce held its Board of Directors meeting May 8, at which time Kuckelman spoke about his views on the need of a chamber, what makes it work, why business is anxious to support the local chamber, and what he thought the Romulus chamber can do to be beneficial to the community.

The chamber unanimously agreed that Kuckelman, a retured man of 84 years is certainly a phenomenal person in all phases of chamber work. However, the chamber did find efforts to snag him into the Romulus Chamber proved futile. He's a dedicated Belleville man.

The Romulus chamber presently is looking for an executive secretary to work part-time and would be overjoyed to find another Kuckelman.

Antisubversive seminar aims at combatting threats

The Michigan Antisubversive Seminar, which meets at the Sheraton Metro Inn, 8600 Merriman Rd., Romulus, for three days over the Memorial Day weekend (May 27-29) has the sole objective to reveal to everyday citizens of this area, current basic information concerning the methods, objectives and philosophy of subversive forces at work in America today, and how to effectively combat the dangerous threat in the private sector of American life," according to Dr. Fred Schwarz, president of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, the sponsoring organization.

"To put it in simple terms," Dr. Schwarz continued, "every man, woman and young person of America must realize that we, above all free peoples of the world, have the most to lose should these subversive forces gain control of America.

"Each of us has a job to do repudiating Communism, anarchy, and other extremists in our own community and private sphere.

"The purpose of the seminar is to educate the people of this area concerning what the individual can do to help in this non-shooting war which the Reds launched long ago and today is in danger of breaking out into a shooting one."

Dr. Schwarz, founder of the California based Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, says that no area of life today is immune to Communist infiltration, manipulation and exploitation.

"Their influence has found its way into our homes, factories, schools and even our churches and military. Unfortunately, the Communist fronts are many, their approach is subtle and they use tools of deception to hoodwink so many of our citizens. The whole purpose of our seminar, therefore, is a call for community education and to revitalize our American spirit which we inherited from our country's founders."

Dr. Fred Schwarz, who is noted for his intelligent fight against Communism, gave up a medical practice in Sydney, Australia, to alert citizens as to the true nature of Communism and other allied subversive organizations. He is director of the seminar and will lecture twice each day at 9:30 a.m. and 8 p.m.

The seminar will continue for three days at the Sheraton Metro Inn with sessions convening from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. It is open to the general public. Registration fee for the full course is $20 or $2 per lecture. But so that no wne will be excluded on financial grounds, tuition scholarships are granted on request.

"Already we have granted 200 scholarships to college students from several states. They will receive free tuition, lodging and meals," Dr. Schwarz added.

For information regarding scholarships or advance registration to the Michigan Antisubversive Seminar, write or phone the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade, Post Office Box 890, Long Beach, California 90801, or phone (213) HE 7-0941.

County fair recreated at Greenfield Village

The annual Country Fair of Yesteryear at Greenfield Village is pure nostalgia.

Everything that made the traditional country fair a much anticipated and well remembered event a century and more ago is re-created at the village this year on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Each day begins with a dazzling "Cavalcade of Transportation Parade" at 10:30 a.m. Complete with bands, horses, antique bicycles and automobiles, horse-drawn vehicles of all kinds - a stage coach, a covered wagon and an ancient fire engine - and even keystone cops, the parade winds through the historic Village streets to the midway area.

The midway bustles with activity throughout the day. There are games and races in which children of all ages compete for prizes; the exhibition tent is filled with entries of needle work, baking, hobbies and graphic arts. Demonstrations of horsemanship and dog obedience training are held there also.

Although the midway is the center of the fair's activites, the entire village comes alive with the festive atmosphere of an earlier America. Hundreds of young farm animals rest in their pens or graze on the village lawns for the children to see at close range.

Throughout the village, craftsmen demonstrate the crafts used by our ancestors in everyday life such as wood carving, candle making, cider pressing, butter churning, wool dyeing, chair-seat caning and many others.

Concerts by area high school bands punctuate each day's activities as do variety shows featuring old-time entertainments and an almost forgotten springtime tradition- the Maypole Dance. Displays and demonstrations of early gasoline and steam engines in the village's industrial area fill the air with the clatter and clank of ancient machinery performing such chores as sawing logs, husking corn and pumping water.

The event is designed to show today's generations what these 19th-century festivals were like, say village officials. The historic setting on which it takes place accentuates the color and spirit of the occasion and assures its authentic recreation.

Saturday, the final day of the fair, is traditionally family day when they can take this nostalgic trip to the past together just as their forebears did.

In addition to the fair itself, they can enjoy all the regular activites the village offers - tours of the historic buildings, rides on the sternwheel Steamboat Suwanee, which makes its annual debut that weekend, or on the Torch Lake steam locomotive and visits to the regular village craftsmen at the Sandwich Glass Plant, the Cotswold Forge and the Village Pottery.

There is no additional charge beyond the regular village admission of $2.25 for adults and $1 for children 6 through 14.

Met soprano cancels performance in Detroit

Immediately on receiving word that Renata Tebaldi, Metropolitan Opera soprano, was being forced through illness to cancel her Detroit opening night appearance in "Otello", May 29, the Detroit Grand Opera Association announced the role of Desdemona would be sung by Teresa Zylis-Gara.

Officials of the Opera Association noted that Miss Tebaldi had canceled all her appearances in the five other cities that precede Detroit on the current Metropolitan tour, but had hoped Detroit, the last city, might find her sufficiently recovered to appear as scheduled.

Miss Zulis-Gara, who was born in Poland and sang in many leading European opera houses before making her Metropolitan debut in 1968, had been scheduled to sing the Countess Almaviva in "Le Nozze di Figaro" on May 30, the second night of the Detroit season. Instead, Lucine Amara will sing the part.

A few months ago Miss Zylis-Gara sang Desdemona in the New York premiere of the new production of "Otello" that will be seen in Detroit.

Besides "Otello" and "Le Nozze di Figaro", which will be presented on May 29 and 30, respectively, the Detroit season will include: "Faust", May 31; "Fidelio", June 1; "La Traviata", June 2; "La Boheme", June 3, matinee; and "La Fille du Regiment", June 3, evening.

Tickets are currently available for all the operas except "La Traviata" and "La Fille du Regiment" and are on sale Mondays through Fridays at the Ford Auditorium box office, 20 East Jefferson Ave.

All opera performances are at the Masonic Temple Auditorium.

Merry-Go-Rounders on Youtheatre stage

The Merry-Go-Rounders whirl onstage at Detroit Youtheatre Saturday with another unique program of story-dances that places their company among the top professional groups in children's theatre.

A Magic Mechanic and a Ringmaster pace the performers in three episodes: Caribbean Holiday captures the spirit of Haiti, with its mixture of French and Spanish influence on folklore and dance; Harrison Loved His Umbrella is the fable of the only child on the block who carried an open umbrella all the time; Holiday in Israel is a folk-ballet of thanks for an abundant harvest, with a grand finale - the joyous, torch-lit Hora.

Curtain time is 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. The Youtheatre's traditional celebrity party follows both Saturday performances and gives the audience a chance to meet and talk with cast members.

Tickets at $1.50 ($1 each for groups of 10 or more) are available at the Detroit Institute of Arts Ticket Office (832-2730) and all J.L. Hudson ticket centers. Arrangements for birthday party or other special groups can be made by advance request.

Cairns' kindness recently rewarded

The many favors and assists that Bill Cairns, 65-year-old retired and disabled carpenter of New Boston, performed for others over the years paid off last Saturday.

Cairns worked at the Ford Motor Co. for 36 years, until five years ago when he became disabled with a blood and heart condition that forced him to retire. He wanted to remodel a sun porch at his home, located at 37253 Sibley Rd.

The sun porch, part of the front of the house, is separated from the living room by French doors.

When word leaked out that Cairns wanted to make the sun porch part of his permanent living quarters his many friends and acquaintances arrived at the Cairns' residence last Saturday and by the end of the day had the 10 windowed-sun porch completely remodeled to the satisfaction of their friend and often-time benefactor, Bill Cairns.

Condominium zoning denied

A request to rezone 27 acres of land in Van Buren Township for the construction of condominiums has been rejected by the Township Board.

The request, filed by Seligman and Associates Inc. of 18530 W. 10 Mile Rd., Southfield, sought a rezoning of the land parcel's present classification of R1-B (single family residential) to R-M (multiple dwelling).

The land site is located on the north side of Ecorse Road, west of Haggerty Road.

The Van Buren Planning Commission previously had denied the rezoning request and recommended such action to the Township Board.

Trustee Dominick W. Blend made a motion to support the decision of the planning commission to deny it. He was supported by Trustee Mrs. Patricia Cullin.

Voting in favor of the motion were Trustees Blend, Cullin and Gerald Maton. Voting against the motion to deny the request were Township Treasurer Frederick Birk, Trustee Joseph Hogan and Township Clerk, Mrs. Erma Jean Payne.

Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer broke the tie by voting yes.

Board invited to dinner

The adult education history class at Romulus Senior High School invited members of the Board of Education to attend a potluck dinner to honor the graduates of the evening classes.

The dinner will be held at 7 p.m. May 24 in the high school cafeteria.

Dennis Jacobs, class member of the class, presented the invitation at a recent session of the school board.

UR improvement pact ok'd by city

The Romulus City Council has approved an improvement work contract for the city's first urban renewal project.

The contract, calling for grading, paving and drainage work, was awarded to the John Carlo Inc. of Warren.

The firm submitted a bid of $1,116,242.99, the lowest of eight proposals received by the city.

The city's initial urban renewal project involves 175 acres located in the Wayne-Beverly roads area. The project is the first phase of 575 acres of land embraced in the urban renewal program.

In a related action, the City Council approved taking demolition bids for the urban renewal area. George Wilhelmi, urban renewal director, reported 44 structures in the urban renewal area are now ready for demolition.

City engineers Wade, Trime and Associates of Taylor have been instructed to advertise for demolition bids according to specifications of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Wilhelmi reported that this demolition bid proposal will cover the first phase of the program's demolition program. Other bid proposals will, with council approval, be requested as other urban renewal structures are made available, he stated.

The council also approved a proposed lease between the House of God Church 2, located at 34156 Beverly Rd., and the Urban Renewal Department.

Zoning code hearing set

The Romulus City Council will conduct a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. May 23 on a proposed amendment to the city's zoning ordinance.

The hearing will be conducted in the city council chambers.

The proposed zoning ordinance would provide for a special exception use to be known as a special residential development category.

Senior choir gives concert

The Romulus Senior High School Choir will present a spring concert at the high school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 25.

The concert will be under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Mayberry, musical instructor.

Several musical selections, including solo presentations, will be on the program.

Van Buren meeting was 'show stopper'

To the editor:

The Van Buren Township Board meeting of May 9, was a real show stopper.

What I have reference to was the request by Seligman, Inc. to rezone 27 acres of land from "residential single family" to "multiple family". If rezoning to allow this condiminium complex had been approved, our township would have increased by 312 housing units and approximately 200 children.

While I agree that population growth is inevitable, now does not seem like a good time to saddle our ½-day school system with even more children.

As to the board meeting itself, the petitioner presented the same pitch to the township board that had previously been presented to the township planning commission, the township's professional planning consultant firm (Parkins and Rogers) and the Wayne County Planning Commission.

In addition, the township planning commission in conformance to its standard procedure held a public hearing on this rezoning request. At this public hearing, the petitioner presented his case for rezoning.

After hearing from the petitioner, the chairman of the planning commission, Charles Walls (who in my judgment is an excellent administrator and chairman) asked for those present who wished to speak in favor of the rezoning to please do so. Result - 0.

Next, the request was made for those wishing to speak against the rezoning to please do so. Result - A room full of people, one at a time, stood up and voiced strong opposition to the rezoning.

The significant point of this public hearing is that if people are to be convinced that Democracy works, they have to see their elected officials actually paying attention to what people have to say on township matters.

So flash, the scene switches to the township board meeting and the petitioner has just made his pitch. These then are the facts before the township board members:

1. The township planning commission recommended disapproval of the rezoning based on the fact that it violates our brand new 20-year zoning plan,for which the township has paid good money to develop. It would be strip zoning. It would be just across the street from two projects which will load Ecorse Road with traffic from 3,400 dwelling units, and finally, because of the strong public sentiment voiced against the rezoning at the public hearing.
2. Based on an independent review, the Wayne County Planning Commission recommended disapproval.
3. The township's planning consultants recommended disapproval.
4. The voice of the public voiced disapproval.
5. We already have an overcrowded condition in our schools.

Prior to any motion, Trustee Joe Hogan voiced the opinion that this would be a good deal for the township because the project was comprised of only two-bedroom units. (The petitioner's original data stated 2 and 3 bedroom-units.) Mr. Hogan also indicated that the township planning commission does not give proper consideration to these matters.

Trustee Jerry Maton (also a member of the planning commission) very capably explained the logic behind the recommendation of the planning commission. However, considering the wishes of the people plus the ability to digest mentally logic apparently has never been Mr. Hogan's "bag".

Or, as Trustee Don Blend so aptly put it to Joe Hogan - "Why don't we just do away with our planning commission if we are just going to ignore their recommendations"? This bit of reason however just went right past Joe.

Trustee Mrs. Pat Cullin then brought up again, for Joe, the fact that Ecorse Road will already be overcrowded with the units approved to date.

All of this was to no avail as Mr. Hogan continued to ignore all facts available. At this point, Trustee Blend made a motion to deny the rezoning, the motion was seconded by Pat Cullin.

A vote was then taken which showed that Don Blend, Pat Cullin and Jerry Maton voted against the rezoning and Joe Hogan, Irma Payne and Fred Birk voted in effect for the rezoning. Three being a tie, Supervisor Elton Gollwitzer also voted to deny the rezoning which finalized the issue.

As a result, the people and the township came out on top but certainly with no "thanks" to Hogan, Payne and Birk.

One final note, regardless of what you think, affected trustees, there is no such thing as a "free" lunch.

Women's circle has bake sale

By PEARL MORRIS
Phone WH 1-1187

The Women's Circle of the United Methodist Church, Olive Street, is sponsoring a bake sale Saturday at Vescio's Market on Main Street. The women will accept donations of food to be sold.

Plans are being made for a Business Men's Luncheon which will be sponsored by the Romulus W.S.C.S. on Friday, May 26, in the basement of the United Methodist Church on Olive Street. Serving will be from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and everyone is invited to make plans to attend. Admission will be $1.50

Eugene Tally, 37000 Menton Street, retired recently from the Ypsilanti Ford Plant after 37 years of employment. Fellow employees honored him at a stag party and dinner. They also presented him with a matched set of "his" and "her" luggage which he and his wife broke in on a trip to Florida.

Local folks are invited to the pancake festival which the Romulus Kiwanis Club will hold all day Saturday at the Romulus Progressive Club Hall, 11580 Ozga Road. The Kiwanians will be serving pancakes and sausage (all you can eat!) from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Donations are $1.50 for adults; 75 cents for children 5 to 12 years, with those under five admitted free. Proceeds will support the dental program for indigent children.

The Romulus W.S.C.S. of the United Methodist Church is going to pay $10 each for 10 young folks going to church camp this summer. If more than 10 sign up, the $100 will be pro-rated.

The Romulus W.S.C.S. has set Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10, as the dates for its annual spring rummage sale. Hold on to your usable discards as you do your spring housecleaning, as the ladies will appreciate any good saleable merchandise! The sale will be held in the basement of the Romulus United Methodist Church, Olive Street.

Mothers and Daughters were honored at a banquet held Friday in the Fellowship Hall of the Calvary Baptist Church on Ozga Road. A delicious dinner and enjoyable program marked the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hay and Miss Pearl Morris of Huron River Drive South visited cousins, the Wallace Bonneaus, Sunday evening at Milford. Mrs. Bonneau's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Morris (wife of the late Loy Morris), remains in a coma at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after suffering a stroke two weeks ago.

Folks of Romulus and surrounding communities are invited to attend the Country Fair of Yesteryear to be held at Greenfield Village, Dearborn, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 18-20. A number of local 4-H members will have animals and projects on display there.

Mrs. Julius Szabo of Romulus Avenue, her daughter, Mrs. Karen Zavodsky and sons, Richard and Jason, of the Briarwood Townhouses, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Krueger and sons of Romaine Street returned Saturday from a two-weeks trip to Florida. Highlights of their vacation were a stay at Ft. Lauderdale and visits to Cape Kennedy and the new Disney World.

Children and grandchildren called and enjoyed buffet supper Sunday at the Romulus Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant VanAernum in celebration of Mother's Day. Their eldest son, Keith VanAernum and family were unable to attend so telephoned their best wishes to Mrs. VanAernum from their home in Ft. Washington, Wis.

Belleville, Edsel Ford tied for first place

Belleville has problems. And they were caused by Dearborn Edsel Ford which exploded for six runs in the sixth inning to hand Coach Vitold Kaminskis' Tigers a 7-3 setback.

The defeat shoved Belleville into a two-way tie for first with Edsel going into this week's action. And the Tigers, who had Dearborn on its mind last night, will face Trenton on Friday and Plymouth next Tuesday.

Kaminskis' minions must take both if they hope to stay in the race.

Vern Gowen, the winningest Tiger hurler, had gathered goose eggs for five innings before the T-Birds managed to put six runs on the scoreboard in that disastrous sixth. Gowen was pulled then and Jerry Cole finished up.

Belleville grabbed a 3-0 lead in the fifth when, with one away, Mike Dansard singled and moved to second as Ed Branam sacrificed. With two-away Bob Johnson came through with a pinch-hit 3-run homer.

The loss also cost the Tigers the services of veteran outfielder Jim McCoy who was hurt going for a fly ball. McCoy snared Brent Boegler's well-hit ball in the sixth but while backing up flipped over the centerfield fence.

McCoy was rushed to Bayer hospital, treated for a bruised back and released that day. Coach Kaminskis said he expected McCoy to be back in the lineup this week.

Earlier in the week, a grand slam homer by Kevin Bara, his first of his prep career, propelled Belleville to a 9-4 victory over Redford Union. The victory was Belleville's sixth against one loss in the league and it completed the first round of league competition.

Belleville leaped on R.U. for two runs in the second inning before the losers put a run on the board in the third to make it a 2-1 ball game. However, in that inning Larry Farr worked losing pitcher Pat Burgess for a walk. Farr moved down to second when Jim McCoy also walked.

With men on first and second, Mike Kottke laid down a bunt single to load the bases. Vern Gowen then drew a base on balls to force in one run, to bring up Bara.

Bara picked out one of Burgess' fast balls and hammered into right field for his first grand slam homer. From there on the Tigers coasted, picking up runs in the fourth and fifth innings while Redford Union put two runs on the scoreboard in the fifth and another in the seventh.

Gowen, who won three while losing two to this point, went all the way and notched five strikeouts and walked two. He aided his own cause with a double and single for three trips to the plate.

Bara also finished up with two for four while mate Tim Vance accounted for two runs batted in and two for three at the plate. Kottke pounded out two singles, as Tiger batters had one of their "hottest" days of the season, collecting a total of 11 hits.

Gowen was tagged for six hits.

ANN ARBOR - Michigan's Steve Adams put together one of the most impressive double track victories in years by a Big Ten athlete with a shot put distance of 60-3 and a discus toss of 185 feet in the Dogwood Relays.

Girls make tennis debut at Romulus

By TOM MOORADIAN
Daily Eagle Sports Editor

Joanne and Norma Cikalo are attractive 16-year-old young ladies who are juniors at Romulus Senior High School. They love to play tennis and have been doing so at a very young age.

And the two girls don't care who they play against.

When Romulus High School Coach Zane Kuryliw and his team would return from an away meet they would find the two girls playing tennis on the school's court. And the Romulus coach noted that they played very well.

In fact, the girls played so well, the coach thought, that they could beat some of the boys.

When three of his players failed to turn in eligibility slips last week, Kuryliw hurriedly sought out replacements for his team.

"I asked our athletic director, Ed Baum, if I could use the girls on the team," related the Romulus mentor, "and he replied, 'go ahead'"

Kuryliw said he checked into the girls' grades and found them to be straight "A" students. He also learned that the girls are recent transplants from California where they took up tennis "at a very early age."

"I asked them if they wanted to play for the team," said Kuryliw, "and they were really happy."

A recent state law provided that high school girls may compete against boys in non-contact sports, therefore, the girls would be eligible under the law. The Michigan High School Athletic Association, which governs prep sports in the state, has not fought the ruling.

The Romulus coach used his newly-found netters for the first time against Inkster and the girls lost. Yesterday, Joanne and Norma took on River Rouge's John Usztics and Pete Bikas and dropped a pair of sets, 6-4, 6-2.

The 45-year-old coach wasn't disappointed at the girls' initial performances.

"These girls are as good as any third doubles team," said Kuryliw, "but still lack experience, namely, in singles competition. In order to become good doubles' pairs, you have to know how to play well as singles," he explained.

Though the advent of the "new era" caught some of the Romulus players by surprise, the team has accepted the girls without any reservations, according to the coach.

"Our boys were surprised, I must admit when I announced we were going to use the girls on the team, but they have accepted them," the coach added.

It isn't actually the team members who make faces now but, when the opposition learns they are to play girls, the boys are stunned.

"The opponents just don't know what to think of it and for a moment they don't believe it, they think it's a joke or something, but when they learn it's for real they really get prepared because they just don't want to lose to girls," said Kuryliw.

The girls also have provided an incentive to win for the male members of their team, "because it wouldn't look nice for them to win and the boys to lose," said the Eagle coach.

Though high school tennis attracts few fans, the presence of the lovely twins on the court has helped lure both girls and boys to the matches.

"We have more fans now than ever," said Kuryliw, "and we haven't even won a match in our last seven meets. The fans come out to watch because they're curious, I think.

"I think girls are good for this sport."

Romulus has an over-all 2-9 record. The Eagles are not affiliated with a league this year since the dissolution of the Twin Valley, a year ago.

The 45-year-old mentor, who has supervised Inkster's Parks and Recreation tennis program and runs many tournaments in the area and state, points out "that the girls do not pose any particular problem."

"But I feel they should have their own uniforms, standardized with Romulus emblems," he said.

He went on to say "that I have been playing tennis since I was a kid and walked through alleys with a racket in my hand in days when, if you didn't carry a baseball bat, you're considered a weirdo .

"But I feel girls should have been playing tennis against boys in junior highs and high schools a long time ago."

And here's a word of caution to Jim Hadley at Robichaud High School. Hadley's team is next for Romulus which will meet the Dearborn Heights team on Tuesday at 4 p.m.

When asked when he thought the girls would win their first contest.

"I'm willing to bet that when we play Robichaud these girls will beat their No. 3 doubles."

ANN ARBOR — Coach Bob Schembechler of Michigan will help coach the North squad in the Coaches All-American football game June 24 in Lubbock, Texas.

Clark wins gold medal

New Boston Huron will be represented at the State Track Finals on Saturday, but Coach Keith Reed won't take as large a contingent as he had expected.

Huron finished fifth in the Class B field that assembled at Southgate Schafer Saturday and the Chiefs qualified six persons.

Dan Clark set a school record en route to the half-mile regional title. Clark, a senior with an impressive list of achievement in football, was clocked in the winning time of 1:58.2.

Reed's mile relay placed second to Ecorse, the regional's over-all champ as Ed Fakhoury, Mark Mittlestat, Paul Engle and Clark combined for a 3:32.0. The Red Raiders of Ecorse finished with a 3:27.0.

Engle covered the mile in 4:34 to earn a bronze medal and also qualify. He trailed Ann Arbor Pioneers' Chuck Stamper (4:31.0) and Terry Morrin, Monroe Catholic Central (4:33) across the finish line.

Reed said he wasn't disappointed with his team's performance, but "felt we could have done better."

"Our top sprinter, Roger Miles, pulled a hamstring muscle and couldn't continue, therefore, we had to make an adjustment in our lineup. With Roger we could have finished further up the standings, I am sure."

Meanwhile Huron is preparing to host the annual conference meet which will be staged at the New Boston High School on Thursday beginning at 4 p.m.

Huron nipped Tecumseh in its final dual meet as the Chiefs pulled in nine first places, including a double victory by Dave Durham. Durham won the long jump on a leap of 18 feet, 5 inches, then ran a 10.3 in winning the 100-yard dash.

Some of the Chiefs turned in their best times of the year in this meet. Clark covered the half-mile in a record-shattering 1:59.3 to erase his previous best of 2:03. And teammate Ed Fakhoury was clocked in the third best time in the event (2:00) wiping out his previous best of 2:03.

Huron wrapped up its dual meet season with an over-all 9-2 won-lost record. The Chiefs finished with a 6-2 mark in the league making it a record season for the trackmen.

The record is the best ever posted by a Huron track aggregation.

The results of the meet are: Huron 63, Tecumseh 60

Huron streak ends, loses 2

Huron has lost that winning touch. After six consecutive victories, Coach Ron Smith's Chiefs found the going tough in conference competition last week and dropped two key games--a 5-2 loss to Grosse Ile and a 5-3 setback at the hands of Flat Rock.

Ron Thompson gave up three runs to Grosse Ile in the opening inning and the Chiefs struggled to get them back. Huron made it a 3-1 ball game in the third when Art Sarkkinen singled and moved up on a fielder's choice. He scored when Jamie Hinojosa singled.

However, Grosse Ile came right back to get the run back in their turn at bat in the sixth to hand Thompson the loss. The Chiefs placed their final run of the game on the board thanks to an error, passed ball and Tim Hinojosa's single.

Thompson connected for two of the Chiefs' eight hits while he gave up 11 hits to his rivals.

Flat Rock, which is holding down first place in the league with a 10-2 record, trimmed the Chiefs 5-3 as Dave Spoehr scattered six hits to chalk up the win. Jamie Hinojosa was the loser.

In the top of the first Huron gained a 1-0 edge when Jamie Hinojosa, Dana Kemp and Thompson each stroked singles, but Flat Rock went ahead 2-1 in the bottom of that frame.

Huron managed to tie it up in the third as an error, sacrifice helped Jamie Hinojosa around the bases. The Chiefs gave up the lead for good in the third when Flat Rock scored two more runs to

Franklin retains crown

By JIM FREER
Sports Writer

Livonia Franklin track coach Bob Holmes was a happy man last night after his Patriots successfully defended their championship in the 13th Annual Western Wayne Relays at Belleville.

"Naturally we're happy that we defended our title," said Holmes after he accepted the championship trophy. "We're also pleased, and somewhat surprised, at our margin of victory. I was a little worried about Taylor Center and Wayne during the middle of the meat but then our hurdlers came through, just like we thought they would, and we were able to breathe easy toward the end."

Livonia Franklin compiled a total of 45 points to easily out distance runner-up Wayne Memorial, which had 28.

Taylor Center finished third with 23 points, followed by Robichaud (22), Belleville (20½), John Glenn (18), Livonia Bentley (17), Garden City East (11), Inkster (5), and Romulus (1).

Only one meet record was set during the cold and windy evening.

Host Belleville established the mark in the four-mile relay with an 18:39.67 clocking that shattered the previous record of 18:56.1 which Franklin set in 1965.

John Glenn also bettered the old mark as it placed second in 18:41.03.

The Tigers' four-mile team turned in a balanced effort. Lonnie Clark led off with a 4:39 mile and he was followed by Gary Reffit (4:44), Mark Davis (4:40), and Phil Combs (4:36).

Glenn made a race of it when anchorman Jim Lockwood ran his mile in 4:22.6. This was the best time ever for the Rocket junior, who ranks among the top milers in the state.

Belleville Coach Ken Head had his quartet primed for a record performance.

"We're shooting for the record," said the Tiger mentor. "We tried for it and missed last year, although we did win the event, and three of our guys (Clark, Reffit, and Combs) were members of that team. We're glad that we got it for their sake. We expected a tough race from John Glenn - and we certainly got it on the last leg."

Belleville also placed first in the high jump relay as sophomores Bruce Ford, Tim Weelday, and Gary Van Buhler combined for a height of 17 feet, one inch.

Franklin captured first place in five of the 13 events.

John Dawe got the Patriots off to a good start in the running events when he won the two-mile after a duel with Wayne's Dave Smith and Garden City East's John Yurchis. Dawe's time was a creditable 9:48.5.

Triumphs in both the high and low hurdles relays proved to be a key to Franklin's victory.

Dave Frecka, Bob Lee, Mark Bair, and Ray Cekauskas made up the Patriots' team in the high hurdles shuttle while Frecka, Lee, Bair, and Dave Newman garnered top honors in the low hurles shuttle with a near-record 58.37 clocking.

Holmes' runners were also first in the special 440 relay, an event which did not figure in the scoring. Sophs Rick Dragovich, Greg Chipman, Matt DeMars, and Harvey Allen covered the distance for Franklin in 47.6.

Brothers Paul and Pete DeNapoli joined with Mike Feister to lift Franklin to a win in the pole vault relay. The three vaulters put together a mark of 35 feet with Paul's 12-6 effort taking individual honors.

Robichaud triumphed in the long jump, 440 and 880 relays.

Bulldogs Willie Jones, Luke Ealey, and Warren Woods totaled 56' ¾" in the long jump. Jones' leap of 19'9 ¾" also topped the field.

Ed McDaniels, James Dillard, Wesley Jones, and Andre Jacobs carried the baton for Robichaud in both the 440 and 880 relays. The quartet ran the 440 in 44.2 and the 880 in 1:30.76. Both clockings were seasonal bests for the swift Bulldogs.

Robichaud Coach Bernie Ingle was forced to scratch several of his relay teams because of injuries.

Runner-up Wayne Memorial chalked up victories in the shot put and mile relays.

Steve Homan, Mike Vega, and Bill Galbraith had a combined distance of 139'5½" in the shot put for Coach Bill Hawley's Zebras.

Darrell Gooden of Romulus was the individual winner in the shot with a throw of 48'11".

Wayne held off Franklin in winning the mile relay, the meet's closing event.

Steve Taylor, John Marmul, Joe Keister, and Sam Still covered the distance in 3:28.97 for the Zebras while Franklin was clocked in 3:29.05. Keister ran his leg in 50.5 and Still was clocked in 50.8 while Joe Jinnett, who ran the third leg for Franklin, was timed in a sizzling 49.1.

John Glenn captured the two-mile relay in 8:18.4.

Bob Smith, Bob Mink, Bob Berry, and Larry Martin ran the half-mile legs for Barry Basel's Rockets.

Huron snaps streak

take a 4-2 edge. The visitors cut away at the lead when Tim Hinojosa smacked in a run with a single.

Jamie Hinojosa, Kemp and Gary Delano each contributed two hits.

A five-run outburst in the bottom of the sixth enabled Huron to win a 5-4 decision from Carlson earlier last week. Trailing 4-0, the Chiefs staged a rally which was ignited by Jamie Hinojosa's single. He moved to second when Mario Gracia singled and both base runners scored when Dana Kemp stroked a two-run double.

Chuck Pierson came through with a single, then Tim Hinojosa plastered a three-run homer to settle the issue in the Chiefs' favor.

Junior hurler Ron Thompson went the route to card the victory. The four Carlson runs were unearned.

Ken Delano and Jamie Hinojosa combined their pitching efforts to stop Carlson 4-3 in Huron's fourth league triumph in eight starts. Delano, who gave up only one hit the first five innings, got into trouble in the sixth and Coach Ron Smith called upon Hinojosa who finished up.

Huron got on the scoreboard in the first inning when Carlson committed two errors, then Ron Thompson slapped a two-run single. The Chiefs added a run in the third as Kemp walked, was singled to second by Tim Hinojosa and Kemp eventually scored on a wild pitch.

What proved to be the decisive run came in the fifth. Jamie Hinojosa singled, stole second and scored in an error.

Delano, a sophomore lefthander, fanned six in chalking up his second win. All three Carlson runs were unearned.

Romulus avenges LP loss

Revenge is sweet. Just ask Romulus' Bill Cuhran, who has had more than his share of troubles keeping the Eagles in the winning columns this season.

Loser to Lincoln Park 1-0 the first time around, Romulus proved the second time around is sweeter by clipping their rivals 5-3 on the four-hit pitching of Steve Pollard.

Pollard went the distance, struck out six and walked seven. His mates provided him with five runs in the sixth to stop the Railsplitters. A bases-loaded single by Mike Bilbrey rocked the downriver power.

In the sixth Virgil Smith with one away and Bob Eves got on on a bunt single. With men on first and third Ken McMann walked. Then Bilbrey came through with his key hit. Frank Polka kept the rally alive with a walk and Pollard cracked a run-producing single.

"This is one of our better games," said Cuhran, whose fortunes took a turn for the worst the next two outings against Belleville and Ypsilanti.

Belleville pounded Romulus hurler Sam Ruffalo for 10 hits in a 12-2 triumph over the Eagles, while Ypsilanti also won a lopsided 11-2 decision from Romulus.

"We were outhit, outpitched and outplayed," remarked Cuhran after the loss to Ypsi. "We're just going to have to make some readjustments to find us a winning combination."

Romulus had the lead 1-0 when a "suicide bunt" by McMann squeezed home Manuel DeLarosa, but Ypsilanti came back to tie it up in the top of the fourth and took command with a five-run outburst in the fifth.

The Eagles answered with their first run in the bottom of the inning when Mike Bilbrey was hit by a wild pitch and was singled to third by Larry Gale. Bilbrey scored on an error.

Mike Tidd earned the victory in Belleville's runaway while Ruffolo was the loser. Vern Gowen blasted a two-run homer and wound up with two hits in three hits, Bob Johnson also rapped out two hits.

Gooden is fourth

Though they missed qualifying for the state track finals, Romulus had a medalist at the regional tournament held at Ypsilanti on Saturday.

Darrel Gooden finished fourth in the shot put with a heave of 49 feet, 11½ inches. Teammate John Trump set a Romulus High record for the two-mile at 10:31, but failed to figure in the top six places which were the medal-awarding berths.

Coach Jesse Meriweather said he wasn't disappointed with his team's performance. "because, we are a young team. Most of these kids are freshmen and if we stick together I know we are going to improve as the years pass."

The Romulus City Council has approved a quarterly report submitted by the Romulus Community Relations Commission.

Presented by Mrs. Suzanne Cooke, commission chairman, the report stated:

"In the past few months the community relations commission has been occupied in compiling a condensed history of the contributions of the various religions, nationalities and ethnic groups within Romulus.

"Interviews with senior citizens, procuring of artifax from the community and surrounding libraries and museums, in addition to the information researched by the commission members, are being compiled for use by the citizens of Romulus.

"The most recent endeavor of the community relations commission has been undertaking the formation of a police community relations team. It is our intention to make this team a subsidiary of the community relations commission.

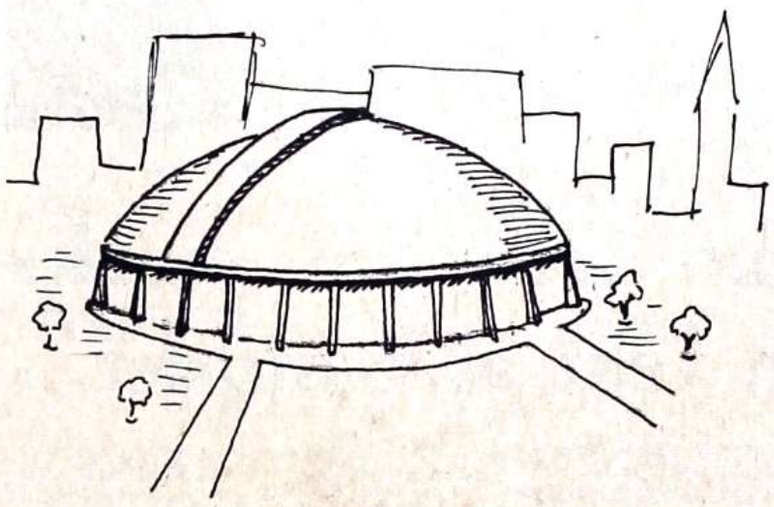
OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISOR HURON TOWNSHIP



This Supervisor, along with Mayor Royce Smith of Belleville, will oppose the use of any public funds to support a private enterprise, more known as the Downtown Riverfront Stadium.

George W. Moore, Supervisor

Huron Township

For the following reasons:

Huron Township is attempting to provide ever-expanding public services for the citizens of Huron as they move from the Rural to an Urban status, and the County of Wayne continuously is decreasing their services to the Township for police protection, road maintenance, improvements and extensions of roads, and improvements in the drainage facilities within the Township and,

Huron Township is carrying on a continuous effort to provide these services, yet keeping taxes within the ability of the citizens to pay and,

Huron Township is now paying the highest tax rate in the State of Michigan to abate pollution and,

Huron Township is attempting to expand their Sanitary Sewer System and Water System to continue their fight against pollution and,

Huron Township has lost much of their taxing power on lands within the Township to the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Park, a facility used by all within the Metropolitan area, and they have also lost much of their taxing on lands to the State of Michigan for the extension of I-275, without receiving the benefits of this project not constructed and,

Huron Township is suffering a continuing devaluation on much of their properties because of the increasing noise pollution created by the flight pattern of the jet airplanes going in and out of Metropolitan Airport and,

The Citizens of Huron have placed high priorities on continuing a quality education for their children, and are paying the taxes to support this commitment.

The Supervisor of Huron Township does support the legal position of Mayor Royce Smith in his battle against the County of Wayne, who are attempting to divert bonding power and taxes of the County to develop a Downtown Sports Stadium, in lieu of pursuing the needs for services of health, welfare and safety for the citizens of Wayne County.

Home Arts Club marks 25th year at banquet

The 25th anniversary of the Home Arts Club of Belleville was observed Tuesday, May 9, at the annual banquet closing the club year. Forty-three women assembled at the Washtenaw Country Club for dinner and the evening program planned by Mildred Baker and her committee; Barb Forsythe, Joy Hill and Sharon Matthews.

As emcee for the evening, Mrs. Baker welcomed members, their guests and three very special guests:

Mrs. Muriel Ciecelski of Milan who was the person responsible for the club's formation in 1947; another charter member, Helen Otter, who had submitted the club motto, "Better Living Through Learning", and Eula Haft, one of two charter members still active in the club, who was featured speaker for the evening. Her topic was Home Arts and a review of the past 25 years.

Mrs. Baker thanked Eula and paid tribute to her perfect attendance (with the exception of one meeting in 1961 when she took time off to assist with a new granddaughter) by presenting her with one of the floral arrangements centering the table. Charlotte Budd, the other active charter member, was unable to attend but also received a floral centerpiece.

A POEM EXPLAINING her absence was read from club president, Lee Smith, who was attending her daughter's confirmation and small tokens of her appreciation given to her fellow officiers: Dorothy Florian, Kathy Miller, Bev Sparrow, Sharon Richendollar, and Millie Baker.

New officers for 1972-73 were announced and the gavel presented to Dorothy Florian, president, who responded and acknowledged her counterparts: Elaine Gutierrez, vice-president; Avis White, corresponding secretary; Audrey Tabor, recording secretary; Barb Forsythe, treasurer; and Bev Sparrow, program chairman.

The highlight of the banquet was the fashion show presented by Hadley's of Gault Village with sportswear, patio-party dresses, daytime frocks, coats and rainwear featured. Mary Ann Clark, fashion coordinator of Hadley's, and Miss Sawachi, manager, were in charge of the program which put the spotlight on the Home Arts Club's own mannequins: Dana Cooper, Dorothy Florian, Sharon Matthews, Barb Forsythe, Jackie Rider, Charlotte King, Janet Patterson, Bev Sparrow, Eunice Kause, Audrey Tabor, and a guest model, Joan Baker.

Millie Baker later thanked Hadley's for their cooperation, for the rain bonnet favors which had marked each place and for the two $10 gift certificates which were won by Barb Forsythe and Dorothy Florian. Another prize, a floral arrangement, was won by Sally Jones.

Divider of spaced 2 x 2 - inch western wood can soften visual transition between kitchen and family room, provide display area for family art projects.

Barbecue tip

The barbecue season will soon be here. If steak is your favorite barbecue fare, vary the flavor by rubbing the meat with garlic before broiling then brushing with butter occasionally while the meat cooks over the hot coals. Or top that steak with fresh sliced mushrooms and green onions that have been sauteed in butter.

Applique's the thing

The Chinese probably didn't use pop art ice cream cones or lightning bolts in their applique designs. Nevertheless, the art originated there several hundred years ago. It was a short cut for the more expensive, time-consuming methods of dying and embroidery. In the U.S. today, applique is the way to spark a dull dress, T-shirt or blue jeans.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

A former movie star unwittingly pointed out one of the principal problems of mankind when she quipped, "Fame may go by and - so long, I've had you." Some people hunger for fame and fortune. Then, when the hunger is satisfied, a different, more severe gnawing hunger exists; a hunger for the meaning of life, a hunger for a purpose for living. It isn't only the drug addicts, the alcoholics, the criminals, the delinquents, who in misery seek an ultimate solution to man's needs. The political doctors are well aware of this when they prescribe cures; peculiar cure-alls for the ailments of mankind.

The cure can not be found in a higher standard of living as long as the ailments of fear, envy, despair, jealousy and selfishness remain uncured. Nor can the cure be found in the hollowness of a wishful thinking society that spends more than $100,000,000.00 a year for advice and guidance from fortune tellers, astronomers, etc.

There is a cure however; easy to prescribe but hard to take. Part of this cure requires taking a stand between the will of God and the will of man. When we really mean and adhere to "They will be done" - the cure will come.

Brooks-Mills wed in April 21 rite

Vases of white gladiolas graced the altar of St. Anthony's Catholic Church April 21 as Helen C. Mills and Robert J. Brooks, both of Belleville, exchanged nuptial vows and wedding bands.

Rev. Raymond Skoney presided at the six thirty ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burrell A. Mills of 340 Church Street and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooks of 878 E. Huron River Drive.

Escorted up the aisle by her father, the bride appeared in a cotton lace creation designed with a high neckline and long sleeves, both trimmed with lace. The floor-length dress was complimented by an elbow-length silk illusion veil caught to a cap of white leaves. Her bouquet was comprised of red roses and white daisies.

AS HER SISTER'S only attendant, Mrs. Carey Moore of Grass Lake, donned a toe-touching blue floral print and carried a bouquet of white daisies and red roses.

John Kress, the bridegroom's cousin from Manchester, served as best man while Joe Kress, another cousin from Manchester, and Terry Mills, the bride's brother from Belleville, ushered.

Mrs. Mills chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of yellow brocade. The bridegroom's mother donned a pale green, lace-trimmed frock. Both were presented with corsages of red roses and white daisies.

The wedding reception was held at the P.N.A. Hall with some 250 friends and relatives attending.

The new Mrs. Brooks graduated from Belleville High in 1970, the same year as her husband, and later attended Ferris State College. Bob entered the U.S. Army in October of 1970 and is currently stationed at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. The newlyweds are now making their home near the base.

Arbor Day marked by VB Garden Club

The Van Buren Garden Club observed Arbor Day by the planting of a white sargent flowering crab tree at the Ypsilanti Evangelical Friends church on Tuttle Hill Rd. honoring club president, Miss Ellen Gould, who is a member of that church.

After the dedication of the tree by Robert Mallick, the secretary of the church, Mrs. Susan Lystrief, gave the group a tour of the new church.

The group then proceeded to the santuary where a program was given, the scripture and prayer by Mrs. Barbara Whiner and a piano and organ duet by Mrs. Robert Mallick and Mrs. William Waltz. Four sisters, Becky, Colleen, Darla, and Evelyn Breining (known as the Darlen Darling's) sang a number of songs. A Solo was sung by Mrs. Robert Mallick.

The history of the church was given by Mrs. Leland Gorton. Mrs. Sherman Dibble spoke of the work of friends far and near. Miss Ethel Hammond told of activities of the present time.

A delicious dinner was later served at the Friendship house. It was a hot pot-luck dinner put on by members of Mary Elizabeth and Pat and Priscilla Missionary societies.

Mrs. Leland Gorton and Mrs. Clyde Breining spoke of memories of the old church. A reading was given by Miss Ellen Gould. "Titled "My Church."

Some of the group later went to Miss Gould's home to see her antiques and pictures.

Women's clubs bring back honors from state convention

Belleville area clubs walked off with several honors at the recent convention of Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs held in Lansing. Foremost was the selection of Mrs. Cleveland (Doris) Roe of 276 E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, as recording secretary of the Federation.

MRS. CLEVELAND ROE

Mrs. Roe, a member of the Belleville Women's Study Club, was installed as recording secretary during a banquet April 26 at Olds Plaza, Lansing.

The banquet, which featured Jesse Owens as keynote speaker, was part of the 77th Annual Convention April 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. Roe, who is currently serving as vice-president of the Van Buren Public Schools Board of Education, is a former teacher, guidance counselor and head of the English Department at Belleville High School.

She is also past president and program chairman of the Belleville Women's Study Club and is a past member of the Status of Women Committee of the State Federation's Southeastern District. A member of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville, she is a past president of the W.S.C.S. She is also active in the Business end Professional Women's Club in Belleville.

Also bringing back accolades to Belleville was Mrs. James (Carol) Fitch of the Junior Study Club whose needlework talents garnered two first place awards for her group. At the Thursday luncheon and sewing style show at the convention, her after-five black polyester dress with hand-crocheted floral trim took a first. And in the crochet department of the fine arts show, the white bedspread she had made for the club's hope chest last fall, took another first.

Miss Sharlene Tator, president of the junior group, received an honorable mention for her knitting ability in the afghan department.

THE CLUB ALSO received a citation from CARE and a special award from Project HOPE.

Local members attending the convention were Mrs. Adgar Wall, who serves on the State Girlstown Board, and Mrs. Lester Corzine from the Women's Study Club. Mrs. Don White, State Public Affairs Chairman, who headed a drug seminar there April 24; Mrs. James Fitch, and Mrs. Richard Smith, president-elect, all from the Belleville Junior Study Club, were also present.

Good old days had drawbacks

Several factors combined to bring about the recent increase in meat prices, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board. An extremely bad winter in some livestock-growing sections of the country in '71 plus fear that the dreaded corn blight would spread brought about a temporary reduction of livestock on feed. This resulted in fewer meat animals coming to market at a time when consumer demand for meat was strong due to the increased level of income for most Americans which has been occurring over the past several years.

Beef for burgers

Surveys indicate that it is not always the most lean beef that makes the best burgers. Both ground beef and ground chuck are especially good for "hamburgers" or beef patties.

Make it beef

Next time you order beef in a restaurant, you'll know that you're in good company. Of all food items available, beef is number one in restaurants according to a recent USDA study of the foodservice industry. In fact, about 28 percent of all beef produced in the United States is sold through foodservice outlets, accounting for more than 21 percent of their purchases

Mrs. Gras featured at H.V. Garden Club

The May meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Madelyn Blend of Juniper Drive, Belleville. Gladys Mast, president conducted the business meeting. A report was made by Lois Hamilton saying we have a teacher from Sumpter Elementary School that our club will sponsor at the Higgins Lake Conservation School.

Charlotte Budd gave a report on ecology and told some ways each of us could help keep our environment clean.

The program featured Mrs. Jennie Gras who demonstrated several different flower arrangements. Ranging from a very simple container with pachysandra and hen and chickens with an oriental feeling to larger arrangements with mums and Japanese iris. A favorite of her demonstration was a small German Stein filled with daffodils. Mrs. Gras is well known for her flower arranging and has had pictures of her work featured in national calendars.

The meeting ended with Mrs. Blend serving light refreshments.

In June the club will tour some gardens in Ann Arbor.

Brent Jay is his title

Romulus meeting to discuss court

The Romulus City Building Authority, operator of the Romulus Municipal Civic Center, has requested an executive session with the City Council.

The request for the meeting was received in a communication from the authority presented to the council last week. No date yet has been set for the meeting.

The Romulus Municipal Civic Center is being constructed on a city-owned 16-acre parcel of land, located on the southeast corner of S. Wayne and Goddard roads. Eight acres of the site are now being used by the new Romulus Municipal Building and the Romulus Public Library, the first structures planned and built in the civic center.

Recently, the City Building Authority received the council's approval to hire an architect to draw up plans for the construction of a proposed new building for the 34th District Court.

The 34th District Court presently is housed in a renovated school building, the former Hale Elementary School, located at 30240 Eureka Rd., Romulus.

The court's jurisdiction embraces the communities of Belleville, Romulus and the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren.

It was reported the meeting to be scheduled is to discuss progress on plans for the proposed new court building.

At NBD, it's the same low flat closing fee, no matter what size house you buy

At NBD, we have a closing fee that has nothing to do with the size of your mortgage.

Instead, it's one low flat fee. One low flat fee whether you're buying a $20,000 house. Or a $100,000 house.

So you might say, the more your mortgage, the more you save at NBD.

Quite possibly save enough to pay for a new chair. A couple of tables. Perhaps even carpet a room.

And when you get your mortgage from NBD, we'll also give you a good estimate of how much your total cost of closing will be—including our fee, insurance, prepaid taxes, everything.

Which means, at NBD, we'll not only save you money on your closing costs. We'll also save you from any unexpected surprises when you sit down to close.

And those are just two of the reasons more people come to us to finance their new home than to any other bank in town. Come see us.

For and about Suburban Women

MISS MATE

Mate-Ison to marry in winter

A December 9 wedding is being planned by Rosemary Ann Mate and John Daniel Ison, both of New Boston. St. Stephen's Catholic Church is being reserved for their nuptials.

Announcement of the engagement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mate, Jr. of 34600 Huron River Drive, New Boston, parents of the bride-elect who was graduated from Huron High School in 1970. She attended Eastern Michigan University and later took her nurse's aid training at Balmoral Skilled Nursing Home in Trenton where she is currently employed.

The prospective bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.Z. Ison of 25695 Bell Road, New Boston, is in his senior year at Huron High School. He was also affiliated with the co-op welding program at Flat Rock High School and is employed at Epp's Sporting Goods in Lincoln Park.

Pegasus 4-H Club wins honors

The Pegasus 4-H Club of Belleville came back with several honors from the 4-H County Dress Review held April 29 at the Ford Central Office Building in Dearborn.

Selected for top modeling in their catagories were Connie Mason for simple dress, young miss, nine, 10 and 11 year olds; and Mary Butler, sportswear, young miss. They also received ribbons for 'Over-all Excellence' and will represent Wayne County at Greenfield Village's upcoming Country Fair.

Chosen as alternates were Sherry Pawlowski and Terry Mayfield, who were also selected to have their work on display under the construction category were along with Mary Butler.

Some 'meaty' statistics

How would you like to have livestock and meat prices rolled back to where they were 20 years ago? Sound good? But what about rolling back income as well? The average breadwinner, while paying some 30 percent less for meat would find that his take-home pay had been cut to less than half of what it is today! On the other hand, livestock producers would be getting very little less than they are today ... since cattle and hog prices have increased only 20 percent in the past two decades. In the same period personal disposable income of the average American consumer has increased 149 percent.

Wayne is site of PM luncheon

The Past Matrons' Association of Belleville Chapter No. 73, O.E.S., met at the Elm St. home of Past Matron Florence Sugars in Wayne on Thursday, May 4. Present for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon were 17 members and two guests, the Worthy Matron, Rose Ann Welt and a friend, Ina Harrison, who assisted the hostess.

The president, Pauline Quinley, had charge of the business meeting with Ada Sager having devotions. Get well cards were signed and sent to three members, Nina Todd, Ina Barker, and Josie Raymond.

The hostess presented a couple of paper and pencil games with awards going to Katherine Spring, Effie Kerbyson, and Rosemary Oakley, the latter having been welcomed back after a winter in Texas.

Past Matron, Ada Sager, will be the June 1 hostess with the meeting being held at the First United Methodist Church.

Japan gets credit

Girls who show off tiny waistlines with the "new" extra wide belts can thank Japan for sharing its "obi". Originally two inches wide, this tie for flowing Kimons sometimes increased to 13 inches with changing styles. Modern Japanese girls dislike the restrictions of obi, but Americans are using similar, heavily decorated belts with many outfits.

Tigers are found only on the Asian continent.

Large capital needs force out family farm

By JOANNA FIRESTONE
Enterprise-Roman Lansing Bureau

LANSING--The rustic family farm of contented cows and patchwork fields is only a Currier and Ives memory in the hearts of Michigan farmers.

Agriculture in Michigan is big business - $5 billion worth in 1970-and all signs point to continued growth, both in farm size and cash receipts.

The number of Michigan farms has decreased steadily from 200,000 just after the depression to 85,000 last year.

"The mortality rate of family farms continues to be high because of the tremendous capital required to keep a modern profitable farm business," Dale B. Ball, director of the Department of Agriculture, said.

"Despite groans of consumers who claim food prices are too high, a decreasing percentage of family income is spent on more and higher quality food," he said. "But the farmer's profit has actually diminished, standing at about 5 per cent now."

The average farm, which occupied about 92 acres apiece and a total of 18.3 million acres in 1933, has swelled to 153 acres.

"Michigan farmers are feeding a vastly larger population today on just under 13 million acres," Ball said. "The high yields are due to increased efficiency, sophisticated machinery, better breeding and improvements in feed and fertilizers."

Ball said farm size will probably continue to grow, but at a slower pace in the future.

"Environmentalist restriction on field use and maintenance, land taxes and more required capital should hold back the growth rate," he said.

Although farm population has dropped to less than 120,000 from its high of 900,000 in 1940, 26 per cent of Michigan's employed work force is involved in food production, processing or distribution.

"The individual farmer in some cases is not breaking even - you can't even brorrow money on a 5 per cent profit - but he lays the way for over a quarter of the state's workers' incomes," Ball said.

More than $80,000 is invested per worker on a crop farm, nearly $210,000 per man in a livestock operation.

The economic squeeze on farms may be compounded by federal action to increase imports of foreign meat.

"We're especially concerned with the origin of some of this meat that is competing with the U.S. - grown product," Ball said. In Michigan, we have full-time sanitation inspection of slaughtering. Yet, some foreign countries have extremely primitive meat laws, and sanitation is questionable. I question whether consumers will consider increased import of this meat a bargain."

Ball said price controls for agricultural products could be disasterous.

"As a group, farmers are price 'takers.' When the commodity they have is ready for the market they must accept the price offered," he said.

"Except for short periods, farmers cannot hold back commodities waiting for better prices. There is no assembly line button they can push for better production nor can they suddenly stop high production."

With profits and initiative slipping, farming is becoming a less and less attractive career.

It is not likely, given the few pluses and mounting minuses of the agricultural business, that many young men will start out in farming unless they are inescapably drawn to working on the land, Ball said.

And with the giant combines, tractors and milking machines, even that is a dubious drawing card.

Despite the tales of exhorbitant government subsidies, Old McDonald and the Farmer in the Dell are a vanishing breed in Michigan farming.

Building in Romulus continues to increase

Building in the City of Romulus continued its upward pace during the month of April, according to Clayton W. Meldrum, director and chief building inspector of the Building Department.

The department issued a total of 154 building permits with an estimated construction cost of $2,309,337. In March, the department issued 99 building permits with construction cost estimated at $985,509.

Of the building permits issued in April, 212 permits were for the construction of residential buildings.

The Republi Development Corp. of Detroit was issued 162 permits for one-family dwellings that are to be built east of Brandt Street, between Middlebelt and Merriman roads. These dwelling units have a reported construction cost of $2,181,872, Meldrum reported.

The total of all permits issued by the building department was 360 compared to 310 permits for March.

Joseph Crova, owner of the Crova Sale and Service, 37385 Goddard Rd., also was granted a permit to remodel his service station.

The total fees collected by the department in April amounted to $27,442.46, a sizeable increase over March's $14,806.42.

The electrical division of the building department issued 49 permits and collected $814.50 in fees. The heating division issued 25 permits and collected $374 and the plumbing division issued 23 permits and collected $1,396.

IMPROVE YOUR HOME

In improving home exterior

Little paint goes a long way

By VIVIAN BROWN

Spring is a good time to give your house a shot in the shingles or shakes.

If you can provide the spark for such action in your community, you may find your property values have escalated.

For example, in one town where property values seemed to zoom overnight, it was really a gradual upgrading that turned the tide. The entire town, populated mainly by blue collar workers, suddenly appeared to have been washed, dyed, starched and pressed. But the cobwebs hadn't really disappeared overnight. It was a long process that finally brought a town to life.

The frame houses wear new colorful coats of paint instead of long-time weathered nondescript khaki color that seemed to be a house uniform. Yards have been cleared of overbrush and the houses look sturdy. Other than that, nothing had been added or removed.

And that may be the real secret of it all.

Years ago in posh adjacent towns people remodeled in a pattern of modernization, but the six-day-a-week workers in X-town couldn't afford to do it. They didn't have time to shear off the porches or dormers or to change the pitch of their roofs that now give the town a distinctive look with their old-fashioned architecture.

It is a lesson to those who can only upgrade a house by remodeling it. The original architecture of a house may have a lot of charm going for it.

Many of these old houses are the braced frame type—Victorian and Colonial—with some old farm houses and salt boxes. Gingerbread scrollwork and fretwork were left on porch posts, overhanging cornices, turrets. Little farmhouses maintained their character with narrow clapboards renewed, not replaced with wider ones. And they retained shutters and porches while nearby towns ripped them off.

Sagging roofs were adjusted, although this can be a costly project necessitating the rebuilding of the roof and some of the framing. In some instances slight sags were left for effectiveness. Why not, things sag with antiquity.

Many houses are painted bright white with vivid blue, green, yellow or pink shutters, door and trim. It gives a look of old-fashioned gingham. Some houses wear darker coats—curry, deep gray, deep blue and muted greens—that call to mind the old homes of Colonial Williamsburg.

These houses were well built and settled without too much shrinkage, so they look sturdy. The town is populated with fine carpenters, plumbers, cabinet and mill workers, whose forbears built these houses to last. Now the building acumen is paying off for their descendants who keep them in good repair.

There are no rotted, loosened or worn porch floors. Railings look as strong as new ones would be, and perhaps they are new.

In assessing how the lesson of this town can affect your own home, it might be as simple as this: repair everything, don't tear anything off your house, and consider color an important key to house charm.

Many people delay a fix-up program because their plans are too ambitious. They plan to remodel this or that "when John gets a raise" or when they have accrued enough money to do the work. Meanwhile the house runs down. It is far better to repair and refurbish what one has at hand and enjoy it now.

Brick houses can be updated. Nothing is duller than rows and rows of all-alike brick houses. Whitewashing brick can give it distinction. As that kind of look ages with the red brick showing through, it provides another kind of handsome look. For a special pick up, paint the door bright yellow, blue or tangerine to individualize your home.

You can always say someone dared you to do it, if neighbors challenge your artistry. And you will notice that before long they will take the cue and the old neighborhood may lose its fuddy-duddy look.

Home systems vary

For cooling older home

Because central air conditioning is custom designed to best serve every home, it can be installed in nearly any residence, whatever its age or size, the Air-Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute says.

But the services of a skilled contractor are required to survey the house and determine the kind of system and size of equipment necessary to give you maximum comfort.

If the home has an existing warm air heating system, ARI says that the contractor probably will recommend a "split" system, the installation most used today. Normally the condenser-compressor is located outdoors, with the evaporator coils and blower inside, and if the existing heating ducts are large enough they can be used to deliver cooling as well as heating.

If your house has hydronic (wet) heat, either a separate duct system will be installed to handle cooling, or the heating plant will be converted to include cooling by addition of a water chiller and fan coil units will be installed in rooms of the house.

Modern equipment is so compact that location is rarely a problem. A basement corner, the attic, or even a closet or crawl space may be used to house the equipment.

There are two basic rules to follow when installing air conditioning, ARI advises: Be sure your contractor is highly reliable and gives you a written proposal, and be sure that he installs equipment that displays the blue and white ARI Seal of Certification, your assurance that it is accurately rated for capacity and dependability.

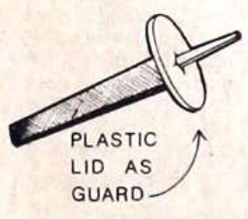
Best way to sharpen axe is with file

By AL CARRELL

Dear Al:

The best way to sharpen an axe is with a file. To do it right, the file must be moved toward the cutting edge. As the axe gets sharper, the danger of cutting a finger increases. This can be averted by adding a guard to your file. Punch a hole in the center of a plastic lid from a coffee can and poke the tang of the file through. Push the lid all the way up against the file. Then you can sharpen away without nicking yourself.

W.P.



Dear Al:

Every year, aphids attack my peach trees, and I have to spray for them. With the awareness of what all the insecticides may be doing to our ecology, last year I decided to try another remedy my father told me about. I know it will sound funny, but he said that if I would plant onions around the base of each tree, I'd have no problem with pests. I did, and no kidding there were no aphids!

Mrs. P.L.

My nursery expert says garlic also works. How did the peaches taste?

Dear Al:

Anyone faced with the task of removing old wallpaper from the wall knows it's not an easy one. I find that by adding vinegar to the water I use, the hot water soaks in better. I put a half cupful in before filling up the bucket with hot water.

K.P.

This really does help because the vinegar acts as a wetting agent. A little liquid detergent also does the same thing.

Shop talk - If you have ever been jealous of those neighbors who can lay a few courses of brick in a perfect circle as trim around a tree, take heart. Now there is an artificial PLASTIC BRICK TREE TRIM CIRCLE that closely resembles the real thing. Metal holddowns keep it in place. It's weatherproof, but lets moisture through because it is porous. It also retains moisture, and since the mower can run right up over the edge, it eliminates hand trimming. Maybe you can make your neighbors jealous.

Al Carrell welcomes all mail, especially tips from fellow Handymen which he can pass on to readers as space permits. While he cannot answer all individual letters, he will try to nail down your problem in his column whenever possible.

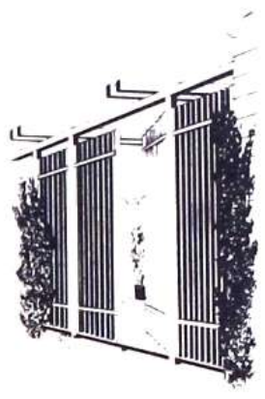
Guide curbs labels

Solid wood won some protection from imitation wood wall paneling under Federal Trade Commission guides which become effective Dec. 15.

FTC guides are intended to assure the consumer is informed accurately and adequately on what he is buying, and is not deceived by false or misleading labeling.

"Wood pattern" or "woodgrain finish," says the new guide, may not be used without qualification to describe panels which have been stamped, pressed or rolled to change the natural grain.

Strict labeling also applies to veneers.



GAINS USE — A neglected side yard can gain use and beauty with a gate and screen of 1-by-2-inch cedar or fir deck, with a privacy fence on property line.

Dour patio gets zing

Letting the imagination roam when planning a new deck lends individuality and zing to an outdoor living area, lifting it out of the utilitarian class.

Size of the deck planks used can make quite a difference in appearance. Broad 2x8-inch Douglas fir will produce an entirely different effect than commonly used fir 2x4s. Placing 2x4s flat will look different from a deck built of 2x4s on edge.

Visual effects can be created by placement of the decking in one direction or the other. Laid parallel to house walls, the deck will seem longer. When boards are set at right angles to the house, the deck appears wider.

Diagonal placement of the boards is most effective when the deck is extra large and wide boards are used - 2x6s or 2x8s.

For an eight-page colorfully illustrated booklet of deck ideas and a folder of plan details for three decks, send 25 cents in coin to The Home Improvements Editor, 35540 Michigan Ave., Wayne, Mich., 48184.

Easily nailed

Do-it-yourselfers like to work with western hemlock because it is easy to nail and saws easily without splintering.

Play tower fun for kids

Many homes need an outdoor entertainment center, not for adults but for youthful visitors to play on while parents are chatting indoors, or as a gathering place for the neighborhood young set.

Replacing a treehouse perched on a brittle branch or other make-do facilities, a three-level structure can capture varied interests and age groups.

On the first level, a sandbox is enclosed by 2x12-inch planks of western wood. The six-foot-square play tower goes up on a framework of 4x4-inch Douglas fir or western cedar posts, preservative-treated for ground contact.

The second level, reached by a ladder built of 2x4s, can be enclosed with board walls and the floor of the third-floor lookout tower, providing a club house or a sheltered area for boys to sleep out.

Van Buren voting precincts increased

Registered voters of Van Buren Township are being notified this week of changes in the township's voting precinct boundaries to encompass two new voting polls approved by the township board.

Increases in the township's population and in the number of voters has resulted in the creation of two new voting polls.

The number of registered voters allowed in any precinct is 1,400, reported Mrs. Erma Jean Payne, township clerk.

The two new precincts were created by splitting up the township's four present precincts.

The new voting precinct boundaries will become effective for the August primary election, Mrs. Payne said.

The following is a description of the boundaries encompassing the new voting precincts in the township as announced by the township's clerk's office:

Precinct 7-Beginning on the west side of Morton-Tavlor Road, to and including the east side of Belleville Road, north of I-94 Expressway, to and including the south side of Yost Road. Voters in this precinct will vote at the township hall.

Precinct 1- Beginning on the east side of Martinsville Road to the west side of Hannan Road, north of Bemis Road to the south side of I-94 Expressway. Voters in this precinct will vote at their regular voting poll, located at the Van Buren Township Fire Hall on Fourth Street, west of Main Street in downtown Belleville.

Precinct 4-Beginning on the west side of Elwell Road to the east side of Rawsonville Road, north of Bemis to the south side of I-94 Expressway. Voters in this precinct also will vote at the Van Buren Township Fire Hall on Fourth Street, west of Main Street in downtown Belleville.

Farmers should plant trees now, says ASCC

This is the time to be planting trees in Michigan, reports Art Rowley, Member of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Farmers may apply for cost-sharing assistance for planting trees for forestry and erosion control purposes under the Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP). Greater emphasis is being placed on forestry and timber stand improvement practices in an effort to increase the acreage and quality of our forestry resources.

In addition to providing a future supply of forestry products such as lumber, pulpwood and other products, these trees will provide cover for wildlife, recreational areas and much needed soil and water conservation benefits. Small areas and marginal farmland could be utilized for planting trees.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports Michigan has about 16.6 million acres which are designated as forest land. Much of this land is not well stocked and could benefit by restocking and stand improvement. Other marginal farmland should be shifted from its present use and planted to timber.

Last year farmers in Michigan completed 9,888 acres of tree planting and 4,661 acres of timber stand improvement under the REAP program. This was much less than the amount needed for forestry improvement practices as indicated by the conservation needs inventory.

Trees and shrubs planted specifically for wildlife food and cover are not included in these figures.

Rowley urged farmers to stop at their county ASCS office now to file applications for any timber stand improvement or tree planting they intend to do in 1972. This will permit the county ASC Committee to evaluate and shift county funds to meet the need for these practices.

He reminded farmers the REAP program pays 80 per cent of the cost for forestry practices due to the long-range conservation benefits provided. This is much higher than the 50 per cent cost-share rate provided for most other practices.

Eligible measures for these practices include site preparation, cost of the trees and the actual planting cost. Costs for timber stand improvement are based on the local forester's recommendation regarding the amount of work needed for a particular stand.

Plantings for harvest as Christmas trees are eligible only to those who qualify under the low-income farmer provision.

General Tendencies: The morning brings you an opportunity to put basic routines in proper order. The afternoon and evening are excellent for whatever requires creative expression and the ability to see conditions in the broadest and most comprehensive light and when good judgment exists.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Home and kin matters should be first handled well in the morning. Later you can venture forth in business matters and achieve a great deal. Your creativity is high, so make the most of it.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) You can complete your shopping and correspondence in the morning so that you can devote more time to making your home efficient and comfortable. Make plans for the future tonight.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Handle personal matters early, then get down to business problems with the help of advisers. Your intuition is good for making big financial headway. Put it to practical use.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Morning is best time to make plans for the future. In the afternoon, first know what is expected, then take care of routine duties. Look to an idealist for the backing you need.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Plan social affairs and then put wheels in motion quickly. Listen to what an adviser has to say. It could help make your future brighter and more as you desire it to be. Think big.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) A discussion with a good friend could open a new vista of success for you. Join the groups that are interesting and helpful and get excellent results. Be careful in travel.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Business affairs should be handled early in the morning before you step out with congenials for amusement purposes. The evening is the best time to repay social responsibilities. Be poised.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) A new interest is fine to explore during part of the morning but later you have obligations to meet. A civic matter can add much to your prestige. A show of ability is wise.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Apply yourself to the important work ahead of you and it will soon be completed. Discuss policy matters with an associate and cement better relations. Show that you are capable.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Morning can be very happy in the company of mate, but take it easy tonight at home and relax there, since you need rest. Find out what is expected of you and then carry through.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) With all that work to be handled in the morning, make sure others do not take you away from it, or you lose out. An associate who is generous can be most helpful tonight.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Plan amusements for the future in the morning and tonight do whatever you can to make your home more charming. Do something about improving your health. Relax at home tonight.

If Your Child Is Born Today..he or she will be one of those delightful young people whose early life will be concentrated on activities in the home, but upon maturity will suddenly become very independent and will become involved in civic affairs to prove ability. Make certain that you encourage your progeny to get the best education that is possible. There could even be fame in this chart.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!
